📚 Daily Editorial Vocabulary — Master List

1118 unique words 15 new today, grouped by meaning so similar words sit together. Updated daily — new words are merged in, duplicates are never repeated. Rows added today are highlighted 🆕.

How to use: pick a group, read each meaning and example aloud, cover the meaning, and recall it.

🧭 Contents

#	Group	Words	New
1	📉 Decline, Fall & Weaken	51
2	📈 Increase, Rise & Spread	35
3	💭 Criticism & Condemnation	36	1
4	👏 Praise, Support & Strengthen	39
5	🚧 Block, Hinder & Suppress	45
6	⚔️ Conflict, Crisis & Disorder	25
7	💥 Harm, Damage & Worsen	13
8	🔥 Severity, Seriousness & Urgency	37
9	❓ Difference, Disagreement & Doubt	29
10	🌱 Beginnings, Change & Turning Points	28
11	💰 Wealth, Money & Economy	31	1
12	🎯 Skill, Care & Wisdom	25
13	🗣️ Speech, Persuasion & Claims	23	1
14	⚡ Strong Feeling, Energy & Zeal	19

#	Group	Words	New
15	🔍 Examination, Judgement & Standards	9
16	🤝 Agreement, Unity & Cooperation	25
17	⭐ Certainty, Importance & Authority	14
18	🌫️ Hidden, Unclear & Secret	16
19	🧱 Real, Concrete & Practical	12
20	✊ Reject, Revenge & Force	15
21	⏳ Time, Lateness & Approach	14
22	🎭 Lies, Trickery & Deception	12
23	🚧 Problems, Obstacles & Setbacks	14
24	🧠 Thinking, Reasoning & Memory	12
25	⚖️ Fairness, Honesty & Truth	20	2
26	🔥 Hostility, Bitterness & Stubbornness	15	1
27	👑 Power, Control & Influence	10
28	😀 Hope, Calm & Positivity	12	1
29	⚫ Bad, Harmful & Unpleasant	23
30	📦 Amount, Size & Plenty	28
31	↔️ Difference, Comparison & Opposite	11
32	🤲 Catch, Hold & Seize	5
33	📌 Cause, Effect & Consequence	12
34	🔺 Highest & Lowest Points	4
35	🍀 Luck, Chance & Fate	2
36	🗨️ Talkative, Loud & Wordy	6
37	😢 Sadness, Regret & Complaint	4
38	🏃 Boldness, Recklessness & Daring	4

#	Group	Words	New
39	😨 Shyness, Caution & Restraint	8	1
40	□ Unity, Sameness & Division	14
41	🛠️ Correct, Fix & Improve	5
42	🪚 Use, Need & Involve	3
43	🚫 Useless, Hopeless & Empty	3
44	🧩 Complicated, Confusing & Vague	1
45	💥 Quality, Character & Behaviour	4
46	Other & Mixed	345	7

📉 Decline, Fall & Weaken ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abate	verb	to become less intense	subside, lessen	The storm finally began to abate by evening.
Allay	verb	to reduce someone's fear or worry	calm, ease	The government tried to allay public fears about the vaccine.
Alleviate	verb	to make a problem or pain less severe	reduce, ease, lessen	The relief package is meant to alleviate the suffering of farmers hit by the floods.
Attenuate	verb	to make weaker or smaller	weaken, reduce, lessen	The mask did not stop infection entirely but attenuated the spread of the virus.
Compromise	noun/verb	a deal where each side gives up something; or to weaken something	deal, middle ground, weaken	Both parties must compromise if the long-running border talks are to succeed.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Contraction	noun	a shrinking of the economy or output	shrinking, drop, decline	GDP recorded its steepest contraction in decades as lockdowns shut down trade.
Cripple	verb	to seriously damage or weaken	disable, weaken	The strike crippled public transport for days.
Curb	verb	to control or reduce something	limit, restrain	The government announced new rules to curb pollution in the city.
Curtail	verb	to reduce or cut short	cut, limit	The lockdown curtailed many basic freedoms.
Dampen	verb	to make a feeling or activity weaker	reduce, weaken, lower	High interest rates are likely to dampen demand in the housing sector this year.
de-		down/remove	decrease, devalue, defrost
Debacle		a total, humiliating failure	fiasco, catastrophe, disaster, collapse
Debilitate		to weaken	enfeeble, weaken, sap, incapacitate
Decline		(1) To say no (2) To go down.	Refuse, Reject, Decrease, Diminish
Deflation	noun	a general fall in prices, often a sign of a weak economy	falling prices, price drop	Japan battled deflation for years as consumers delayed spending in hope of cheaper goods.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Dent	noun/verb	to damage or weaken something a little	damage, hurt, harm	The corruption charges have made a serious dent in the party's image.
Depreciation	noun	a fall in the value of a currency or asset over time	drop, fall, loss of value	The sharp depreciation of the rupee made imported oil far more expensive for Indian refiners.
Depression	noun	a very deep and long-lasting economic collapse, worse than a recession	severe slump, crash, deep crisis	Economists feared the banking crisis might spiral into a full-blown depression.
Deteriorate	verb	to become worse over time	decline, worsen	Relations between the two nations continued to deteriorate.
Diminish	verb	to become or make smaller or less	reduce, shrink	Public trust in the institution has steadily diminished.
Dwindle	verb	to slowly shrink or run low	shrink, decline	Water supplies dwindled during the long drought.
Ease	verb	to make less severe	reduce, relax	The bank moved to ease lending rules for small businesses.
Ebb	verb/noun	to slowly reduce or fade away	fade, fall, sink	As the festive season ended, the buying enthusiasm in markets began to ebb.
Enervate		to drain of energy	weaken, exhaust, debilitate, sap
Erode	verb	to gradually wear away or weaken	wear away, weaken	Corruption has eroded faith in public institutions.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Feeble		Having little strength.	Weak, Frail, Faint, Delicate
Fragile	adjective	easily broken or damaged; weak	weak, delicate, breakable	The ceasefire remains fragile, and any small spark could reignite tensions.
Halfhearted	adjective	done without real effort or interest	weak, lazy, careless	A halfhearted enquiry will only deepen public mistrust in the system.
Hubris	noun	too much pride or over-confidence that leads to a fall	pride, ego, arrogance	The party's electoral hubris blinded it to growing anger on the ground.
Jettison	verb	to throw away or abandon something	dump, drop, discard	The ruling alliance was forced to jettison the unpopular land law after public outcry.
Kowtow	verb	to obey or please someone powerful in a weak, servile way	bow, give in, flatter	The editorial warned that regulators must not kowtow to powerful corporate lobbies while framing data-protection rules.
Lag	verb	to move or develop more slowly than others	trail, fall behind, slow	Rural schools continue to lag behind urban ones in basic facilities.
Languid	adjective	slow, relaxed, and lacking energy	slow, lazy, weak	After a languid first half, the budget session finally sprang to life over the contentious farm bill.
Languish	verb	to remain in a bad or weak state	suffer, stagnate	Thousands of cases languish in the courts for years.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Malaise	noun	a general feeling that something is wrong, weak, or unhealthy	unease, weakness, sickness	The slowdown in manufacturing reflects a deeper malaise in the country's investment climate.
Mitigate	verb	to make something less harmful or severe	reduce, ease	New flood barriers were built to mitigate the damage from storms.
Moribund	adjective	almost dead or about to fail completely	dying, failing, weak	The package aims to revive a moribund manufacturing sector.
Plummet	verb	to fall very fast and far	drop, tumble	Exports plummeted after the new tariffs were imposed.
Plunge	verb	to fall suddenly and steeply	crash, dive	Stock markets plunged amid global tension.
Recede	verb	To move back, shrink, or become weaker over time	retreat, shrink, fade	As inflation receded, central banks began cutting interest rates.
Recovery	noun	the return of the economy to health after a fall	rebound, comeback, healing	A fragile recovery took hold as factory output rose for the third straight month.
Resurgence	noun	a return or rise after a decline	revival, comeback	The region saw a resurgence of the virus in winter.
Slump	noun/verb	a big fall or weak period	drop, decline	The economy is facing a slump as factories cut production.
Subvert	verb	to secretly weaken or destroy a system or authority	weaken, damage, overthrow	The court warned that such tactics could subvert the independence of institutions.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Tenuous	adjective	weak, thin, or not strongly supported	weak, fragile	The link between the two events is tenuous at best.
Undermine	verb	to secretly weaken something	weaken, sabotage	False claims undermine public trust in science.
Unravel	verb	to slowly fall apart or come undone	fall apart, unwind, collapse	The coalition began to unravel as smaller parties withdrew their support one by one.
Vulnerable	adjective	easily harmed or at risk	at risk, exposed, weak	The report warned that the poorest nations remain the most vulnerable to extreme weather.
Wane	verb	to gradually decrease or weaken	fade, decline	Public support for the war began to wane.
Whittle	verb	to slowly reduce something little by little	cut down, reduce, shrink	Successive delays have whittled down public trust in the housing scheme.
Wither	verb	to dry up, fade, or weaken	fade, shrivel	Support for the scheme withered within months.

📈 Increase, Rise & Spread ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ascendancy	noun	A position of growing power, control, or dominance over others	rise, power, dominance	The party's ascendancy reshaped the country's foreign policy for a decade.
Augment		To add to / make bigger.	Increase, Enlarge,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			Amplify, Boost
Autocracy	noun	rule by one person or group with total, unchecked power	one-man rule, dictatorship	The index warned that several democracies were sliding quietly toward autocracy as leaders weakened the courts.
Boost	verb/noun	to increase or improve	help, lift	The new policy aims to boost exports.
Coerce	verb	to force someone to do something by threat	force, pressure, push	The report alleged that villagers were coerced into selling their land.
Compel	verb	to force someone to do something	force, push, make	Rising fuel prices have compelled many middle-class families to cut back on travel.
Compound	verb	to make a bad situation even worse	worsen, add to, increase	Heavy rains compounded the misery of flood-hit villages already short of food.
Diffuse	verb	to spread something widely, or to calm a tense situation	spread, calm, ease	Quick talks between the two states helped diffuse the tension over the river-water dispute.
Disseminate		to spread widely	circulate, broadcast, propagate, scatter
Escalate	verb	to grow quickly and become more serious	grow, rise, increase	If both sides refuse to talk, a minor border dispute could escalate into a full conflict.
Escalation	noun	a rise in the intensity of a	rise, worsening, build-up	Both sides warned that any further escalation

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		conflict or dispute		could spark open war.
Expansion	noun	a period of growing economy and rising output	growth, rise, build-up	The longest economic expansion on record finally stalled amid the pandemic.
Famine	noun	A severe, widespread shortage of food causing hunger and death	starvation, hunger, food crisis	Aid agencies warned that drought could push the region into famine.
Fester	verb	to grow worse and more harmful over time because it is ignored	rot, worsen, build up	If grievances of farmers are left unaddressed, the anger will only fester and erupt later.
Germinal	adjective	in the earliest stage; a starting point that things grow from	early, beginning, seed-stage	The 1953 paper is now seen as a germinal work in the field of genetics.
Germinate	verb	to begin to grow or develop, like a seed or an idea	sprout, begin, develop	The idea of a national health scheme germinated decades before it became law.
Goad	verb	to push or provoke someone into doing something	push, provoke, force	Opposition members tried to goad the treasury benches into a debate on the fuel price hike.
Hike	noun/verb	an increase (usually in price or rate)	rise, raise	A sharp hike in fuel prices has angered commuters.
Impetus	noun	a force that drives something forward	momentum, push	The crisis gave fresh impetus to reform.
Incentive	noun	something that encourages you to act, often a reward	reward, push, reason	Tax breaks gave companies a strong

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				incentive to invest in clean technology.
Inflation	noun	the general rise in prices over time	price rise	Rising inflation has hit middle-class families hard.
Marginalise	verb	to push a group to the edges of society, ignoring their needs	sideline, exclude, push aside	The policy further marginalised migrant communities already cut off from healthcare and schooling.
Meritocracy	noun	a system where people rise based on talent and effort, not birth or wealth	earned success, talent rule	The civil-service exam was designed to build a meritocracy in which ability, not connections, determined advancement.
Prevalence	noun	how common or widespread something is	commonness, spread, how widespread	The study found a rising prevalence of diabetes among young adults in cities.
Proliferate	verb	to increase or spread rapidly	multiply, spread	Fake news proliferated during the election.
Rampant	adjective	spreading uncontrollably	widespread, unchecked	Corruption is rampant in many departments.
Rife	adjective	very common, usually of something bad	widespread, common, everywhere	Corruption is rife in the licensing offices, where bribes decide how fast files move.
Soar	verb	to rise quickly and high	jump, climb	Vegetable prices soared after heavy rains.
Stimulus	noun	government money or action used to wake up a slow economy	boost, push, support package	Washington unveiled a $2 trillion stimulus to revive demand during the downturn.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Surge	noun/verb	a sudden strong increase	rise, spike	There was a surge in demand for electric cars.
Thrive	verb	to grow well and become very successful	grow, succeed, do well	Small businesses began to thrive once the local market reopened.
Ubiquitous	adjective	present or found everywhere	widespread, omnipresent	Smartphones have become ubiquitous in modern life.
Unbridled	adjective	not controlled or held back; without limits	unchecked, wild, free	Unbridled spending before the elections has pushed the state deep into debt.
Urge	verb	to strongly request	push, ask	Doctors urge people to get vaccinated before winter.
Wax		to increase gradually	grow, increase, expand, swell

Criticism & Condemnation ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Absolve		to free from blame	exonerate, acquit, pardon, clear
Accountability	noun	being answerable for your actions, having to explain and take blame	answerability, responsibility	The report demanded greater accountability from public officials who had mismanaged the relief funds.
Admonish		To scold / warn firmly.	Reprimand, Rebuke,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			Reproach, Scold
Attribute	verb	to say something is caused by a particular thing	credit, blame, link	The study attributes the fall in crime to better street lighting rather than policing.
Bemoan	verb	to express sorrow or complaint about	lament, complain	Farmers bemoaned the lack of fair prices.
Berate		to scold angrily	rebuke, reprimand, upbraid, chide
Cacophony		a harsh mix of sounds	din, discord, racket, dissonance
Calumny		a false damaging statement	slander, defamation, libel, smear
Censure	verb	to blame or criticise strongly and officially	blame, scold, condemn	The court did not hesitate to censure the agency for its careless handling of evidence.
Condemn		To strongly disapprove.	Denounce, Criticise, Censure, Reprove
Culpable	adjective	deserving blame for a wrong	guilty, responsible, at fault	The inquiry held three officials culpable for the bridge collapse.
Denigrate		to belittle/defame	disparage, vilify, malign, deprecate
Deplore	verb	to strongly disapprove of and feel sad about	condemn, hate, regret	Editorials across the country deplored the attack on journalists covering the rally.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Draconian	adjective	extremely harsh and severe (laws)	very harsh	Activists called the new law draconian.
Exonerate	verb	to officially declare not guilty	clear, free of blame	The court exonerated him of all charges.
Grim	adjective	very serious, gloomy, or unpleasant	bleak, harsh	The survivors described a grim scene of destruction.
Harangue	verb/noun	a long, angry, scolding speech	scolding, lecture, rant	Instead of a policy plan, the minister offered only a harangue against his rivals.
Indictment	noun	a formal charge of a crime, or strong criticism	charge, blame, accusation	Rising malnutrition figures are a damning indictment of the state's much-publicised welfare schemes.
Invective	noun	harsh, insulting, abusive language	abuse, insults, harsh words	Parliamentary debate has degenerated into personal invective rather than reasoned argument.
Lambast	verb	to criticise harshly	criticise, scold	The press lambasted the government for inaction.
Lambaste		to scold harshly	berate, lash out at, censure, upbraid
Malign NEW	verb	to speak badly about someone unfairly	root MAL=bad; slander, defame	Rivals tried to malign the minister before the vote.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Obloquy	noun	strong public criticism and shame	disgrace, blame	The scandal brought obloquy on the whole party.
Opprobrium		harsh public disgrace	disgrace, shame, infamy, dishonour
Regime	noun	a government in power, often one seen as harsh or unelected	government, rulers, ruling power	The new sanctions target officials close to the ruling regime.
Relentless		never stopping, harsh	unrelenting, persistent, inexorable, dogged
Reprehensible	adjective	very bad and deserving strong blame	shameful, wrong, blameworthy	The court called the police inaction during the riots reprehensible.
Scathing	adjective	harshly critical	harsh, severe	The audit was a scathing indictment of the management.
Slam	verb	to criticise strongly	attack, condemn	The opposition slammed the budget for ignoring farmers.
Stark	adjective	harshly clear; severe and plain	harsh, sharp	The data revealed a stark rise in unemployment.
Subjugate	verb	To bring a people or country under harsh control by force	conquer, dominate, enslave	The empire subjugated the coastal tribes and seized their land.
Tirade	noun	a long angry speech of criticism	rant, outburst	He launched into a tirade against the media.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Vilify	verb	to speak about someone in a very bad way	defame, smear	Critics were vilified in the state media.
Vindicate	verb	to prove someone right or free from blame	justify, clear	The verdict vindicated the whistle-blower.
Vitriolic	adjective	full of bitter, cruel and harsh criticism	bitter, harsh, cruel	The campaign turned vitriolic, with leaders trading personal insults daily.
Yoke	noun	a heavy burden or harsh control that holds people down	burden, control, weight	Small traders say the yoke of complex tax rules is crushing their daily business.

👏 Praise, Support & Strengthen ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abet	verb	to help someone do something wrong	help, support, assist	The officials were accused of helping and abetting the illegal sand mining along the river.
Acclaim	noun	strong public praise	praise, applause, honour	The film won wide acclaim for its honest portrayal of rural life.
Advocate	verb/noun	to publicly support a cause; a supporter	support, champion	She advocates for stronger laws against child labour.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Approbation		approval, praise	approval, endorsement, commendation, acclaim
Backbone	noun	the most important supporting part of something	support, base, main part	Small farmers remain the backbone of the country's rural economy.
Bolster	verb	to support or strengthen something	boost, reinforce	The bank cut rates to bolster the slowing economy.
Clientelism	noun	trading public favours, jobs or money for political support and votes	favour-trading, vote-buying	Analysts blamed entrenched clientelism for the way state contracts flowed only to loyal supporters.
Corroborate	verb	to give extra evidence that supports an idea or claim	confirm, back up, prove	Independent satellite data corroborate the team's finding that the glacier is melting faster than predicted.
Demagogue	noun	a leader who wins support by stirring emotions, not facts	crowd-pleaser	Critics called him a demagogue who exploited fear.
Dialectic	noun	working out the truth by setting two opposing ideas against each other	debate of opposites, back-and-forth reasoning	The essay traces the dialectic between freedom and security in modern democracies.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Embolden	verb	to give someone courage to act	encourage, empower	The win emboldened the protesters to demand more.
Endorse	verb	to publicly approve or support	back, support	Several economists endorsed the reform package.
Enfranchise	verb	to give someone the right to vote or full citizenship rights	give the vote, empower, include	The amendment enfranchised eighteen-year-olds, adding millions of young people to the voter rolls.
Espouse	verb	to support or adopt a belief	support, embrace	The party espouses free-market policies.
Eulogise		to praise (esp. publicly)	extol, glorify, laud, acclaim
Foster	verb	to encourage the growth of something	promote, nurture	The scheme aims to foster innovation among startups.
Garner	verb	to collect or gather, especially support, votes, or attention	gather, collect, get	The new welfare scheme has managed to garner wide support across rural districts ahead of the state elections.
Hail	verb	to praise something publicly	praise, welcome	Leaders hailed the agreement as a historic step.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Hindsight	noun	understanding a situation only after it has happened	looking back, afterthought	In hindsight, the regulator should have acted sooner to prevent the banking collapse.
Keystone	noun	the most important part on which everything else depends	base, main support, anchor	Affordable public healthcare remains the keystone of any credible welfare promise made before the elections.
Laud	verb	to praise someone or something publicly	praise, applaud, honour	Economists lauded the central bank for holding interest rates steady amid global uncertainty.
Laudable	adjective	deserving praise	praiseworthy, good, admirable	The scheme's intent is laudable, but its execution on the ground has been poor.
Partisan	adjective/noun	strongly supporting one side, often unfairly	biased, one-sided, loyal	The committee's report was dismissed as partisan, written only to favour the ruling party.
Qualified	adjective	limited or partial; not full or complete (of support, praise, etc.)	limited, partial, with conditions	The committee gave only qualified support to the plan, noting several serious risks.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ratify	verb	to formally approve an agreement or treaty	approve, confirm	Parliament voted to ratify the climate treaty.
re-		again/back	rewrite, return, rebuild, revise
Recoup	verb	to get back money or losses	recover, regain, get back	Airlines are struggling to recoup losses suffered during the lockdown.
Repatriate	verb	to send someone back to their own country	send home, return, bring back	Aid agencies are working to repatriate refugees once the fighting ends.
Rescind	verb	to cancel or take back an order or decision	cancel, undo, withdraw	Facing protests, the government was forced to rescind the controversial order.
Resilience	noun	the ability to recover quickly after a shock or disaster	toughness, bounce-back, strength	The IMF stressed building economic resilience so countries can withstand future climate shocks.
Sanction	noun/verb	a penalty against a country, or official permission	penalty, approve	The nation faced harsh sanctions over its nuclear programme.
Stalwart		loyal and reliable; strong	dependable, staunch, sturdy, steadfast

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Staunch	adjective	very loyal and firm	loyal, firm	She is a staunch supporter of the reform.
Steadfast		firmly loyal/unwavering	resolute, staunch, unwavering, devoted
Stifle	verb	to stop something from developing or being expressed	block, smother, hold back	Harsh defamation laws can stifle free speech and honest reporting.
Substantiate	verb	to prove with evidence; to back up a claim	prove, support, back up	The newspaper could not substantiate the allegations and issued a public correction.
Underpin	verb	to support or form the base of something	support, back, hold up	Strong institutions and the rule of law underpin long-term economic growth, the World Bank study argues.
Unfettered	adjective	free, with no rules or chains holding it back	free, unrestricted, loose	The court ruled that free speech cannot be unfettered when it incites violence.
Woo	verb	to try to attract or win support	attract	Both parties are trying to woo young voters.

🚧 Block, Hinder & Suppress ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Annex	verb	to take control of and add another's territory to your own	take over, seize, add	The state moved to annex the disputed valley, drawing global condemnation.
Avert	verb	to stop something bad from happening	prevent, stop, avoid	Timely talks between the two sides helped avert a major strike.
Blockade	noun	Sealing off a place to stop goods or people from entering or leaving	blocking, sealing off, siege	The naval blockade prevented food and medicine from reaching the port city.
Ceasefire	noun	an agreement to stop fighting, at least for a while	truce, stop fighting, pause	A fragile ceasefire allowed aid trucks to reach the besieged city.
Co-opt	verb	to win someone over and absorb them so they stop opposing you	win over, absorb, take in	The ruling party tried to co-opt the protest leaders by offering them seats in government.
Complacent	adjective	too satisfied so that you stop trying	smug, lazy, careless	Health officials cannot afford to be complacent even as new cases begin to fall.
Cumbersome	adjective	slow, heavy, and hard to use	clumsy, awkward	The approval process is cumbersome and slow.
Derail	verb	to spoil a plan or process so it cannot continue	spoil, stop, ruin	Repeated walkouts by the opposition threatened to derail the entire winter

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				session of Parliament.
Deter	verb	to discourage someone from doing something	discourage, stop, prevent	Stricter penalties are meant to deter people from breaking traffic rules.
Disrupt	verb	to interrupt and stop the normal flow of something	interrupt, break, stop	Heavy rains disrupted rail and road traffic across the western coast for two full days.
Docile		Easy to control / teach.	Obedient, Submissive, Compliant, Meek
Embargo	noun	an official ban on trade with a country	trade ban, blockade, stop	The arms embargo cut off the regime's supply of new weapons.
Forestall	verb	to act early to stop something from happening	prevent, stop, block	The bank cut rates to forestall a deeper economic downturn.
Fractious	adjective	easily angered and hard to control; quarrelsome	angry, touchy, restless	Holding together a fractious alliance will test the new leadership.
Halt	verb/noun	to stop	stop, pause	Train services came to a halt due to the strike.
Hamper	verb	to slow down or get in the way of progress	hinder, obstruct	Heavy rain hampered rescue operations.
Hegemony	noun	control or dominance of one	dominance, control	The treaty challenged the

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		group over others		region's old hegemony.
Hinder	verb	to make something harder or slow it down	block, slow, delay	Poor road connectivity continues to hinder the growth of rural industries.
Impede	verb	to block or slow progress	hinder, block	Red tape continues to impede small businesses.
Incremental	adjective	happening in small steps rather than all at once	step-by-step, gradual, slow	Progress on the disease has been incremental, with each study adding a little.
Indolent	adjective	lazy and avoiding work or effort	lazy, idle, slow	The report blames an indolent bureaucracy for the long delay in clearing pending files.
Inexorable	adjective	impossible to stop	unstoppable	The inexorable rise of automation is changing jobs.
Insidious	adjective	harmful in a slow, hidden way	sneaky, harmful	Misinformation spreads in an insidious manner.
Insidiously	adverb	in a slow, hidden, harmful way	secretly, slowly, sneakily	Communal prejudice spreads insidiously through everyday speech long before it erupts into violence.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Interdict	verb	to stop or block something officially	block, stop, ban	Coast Guard ships moved to interdict the boats suspected of smuggling contraband.
Intractable	adjective	very hard to solve or control	stubborn, hard, difficult	The water-sharing dispute between the two states has proved intractable despite years of talks.
Moratorium	noun	An official temporary stop or pause on an activity	pause, halt, freeze	The country declared a moratorium on whaling to let stocks recover.
Obtuse		slow to understand	dull, dense, slow-witted, stupid
Obviate		to remove/prevent (a need)	preclude, forestall, avert, prevent
Palliative	adjective/noun	giving short-term relief but not curing the real problem	soothing, temporary, stop-gap	Critics argued that the cash handout was a mere palliative that ignored the deeper crisis of rural unemployment.
Pernicious	adjective	harmful in a slow, hidden way	harmful, damaging	Misinformation has a pernicious effect on democracy.
Preclude	verb	to prevent something from happening; to rule it out	prevent, stop, block	A lack of funding need not preclude high-quality

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				research, the editorial insists.
Quell	verb	to stop or suppress something, often by force	suppress, calm	Police were called in to quell the riots.
Repression	noun	the use of force or control to stop people's freedom or protest	crackdown, control, holding down	Human-rights groups documented growing repression as the state silenced journalists and banned rallies.
Sovereignty	noun	a country's full power to rule itself without outside control	independence, self-rule, control	Beijing insists that any foreign comment on the islands is an attack on its sovereignty.
Stall	verb	to stop or delay something on purpose or by problem	delay, stop, hold up	The talks stalled after both sides refused to soften their demands.
Stem	verb	to stop or slow down something bad from spreading	stop, check, control	The new rules aim to stem the flow of black money in the market.
Stymie	verb	to prevent or block something	block, thwart	Political disputes stymied the relief effort.
Subdue	verb	to bring under control	control, calm	Authorities struggled to subdue the spreading unrest.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Threshold	noun	the point at which something starts to happen or change	limit, starting point, boundary	Temperatures are nearing the threshold beyond which coral reefs cannot recover.
Throttle	verb	to control or choke; to limit severely	choke, restrict	New rules could throttle online free speech.
Thwart	verb	to prevent someone from doing something	foil, block	Security forces thwarted a major attack.
Tussle	noun	a struggle or fight, usually for power or control	fight, struggle, clash	The tussle between the Centre and the states over fund sharing has delayed many projects.
Voluble		speaking fluently/non-stop	talkative, loquacious, garrulous, glib
Wayward	adjective	hard to control; doing wrong or unexpected things	unruly, stubborn, wild	The party struggled to rein in its wayward members who openly defied the leadership.

⚔️ Conflict, Crisis & Disorder ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Adversity		A time of trouble / bad luck.	Hardship, Misfortune, Affliction, Tribulation

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Bane	noun	a cause of great trouble or ruin	curse, scourge	Unemployment is the bane of the youth.
Belligerent	adjective	acting in an aggressive, war-ready way	hostile, aggressive, fighting	The minister's belligerent speech raised fears of a wider conflict.
Diplomacy	noun	the work of managing relations between countries through talks, not war	talks, negotiation, foreign relations	After months of quiet diplomacy, the two governments agreed to reopen their embassies.
Discord	noun	disagreement and lack of harmony	conflict, fighting, quarrel	Growing discord within the alliance threatens the stability of the state government.
Hostilities	noun	acts of war or open fighting	fighting, war, combat	Hostilities resumed within hours of the ceasefire collapsing.
Imbroglio		a complicated messy situation	entanglement, muddle, predicament, mess
Impasse	noun	a situation where no progress is possible; a deadlock	deadlock, standstill, dead end	Talks between the unions and the management reached an impasse over the question of minimum wages.
Mar	verb	to spoil or damage	spoil, ruin	Violence marred the otherwise peaceful rally.
Morass	noun	a confusing and difficult situation	mess, trap, swamp	The project sank into a legal morass of clearances, appeals and that is hard to escape		stay orders that lasted a decade.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Neutrality	noun	the policy of not taking sides in a conflict	non-involvement, staying out, fairness	The small state has guarded its neutrality through every regional war.
Plight	noun	A difficult, dangerous, or sad situation someone is stuck in	trouble, hardship, distress	The report highlighted the plight of refugees stranded at the border.
Predicament	noun	a difficult situation with no easy way out	trouble, fix	Migrant workers were left in a desperate predicament.
Proxy	noun	a person or group acting for another, often in a hidden war	stand-in, agent, substitute	Analysts describe the fighting as a proxy war between two larger powers.
Quagmire	noun	a difficult situation hard to escape	mess, mire	The war turned into a costly quagmire.
Reparations	noun	money paid by a country to make up for war damage or harm	compensation, payback, damages	The treaty required the defeated nation to pay heavy reparations.
Reprieve	noun	a temporary relief from trouble or punishment	respite, relief	Falling prices gave consumers a brief reprieve.
Schadenfreude	noun	pleasure at another person's trouble	gloating	There was open schadenfreude when the rival firm collapsed.
Spark	verb	to cause or start (usually trouble)	trigger, cause	The remark sparked protests across the state.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Stalemate	noun	a situation where no side can win or move forward	deadlock, impasse	Talks ended in a stalemate, with neither side willing to compromise.
Tumultuous	adjective	Full of noise, disorder, or violent change; very unsettled	stormy, chaotic, wild	The nation endured a tumultuous decade of coups and uprisings.
Turbulent	adjective	full of trouble, sudden change, or conflict	stormy, restless, unsettled	The state passed through a turbulent decade of unrest before peace talks finally began.
Turmoil	noun	a state of great confusion or disorder	chaos, unrest	The country was plunged into political turmoil.
Upheaval	noun	a big and sudden change or disturbance	upset, turmoil	The reforms caused major social upheaval.
Vex	verb	to annoy, worry, or trouble someone	annoy, bother, trouble	The unresolved border dispute continues to vex relations between the two neighbours.

💥 Harm, Damage & Worsen ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Aggravate		To make worse.	Worsen, Intensify, Exacerbate, Inflame

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Baleful		threatening harm/evil	menacing, sinister, malignant, ominous
Deleterious		causing harm	harmful, damaging, detrimental, injurious
Detrimental	adjective	causing harm or damage	harmful, damaging, bad	Experts warn that cutting research funding would be detrimental to the country's future progress.
Exacerbate	verb	to make a bad situation worse	worsen, aggravate	Cutting subsidies could exacerbate the crisis for poor families.
Fallout	noun	the bad results that come after an event	result, effect, damage	The political fallout from the scandal continued to trouble the ruling party.
Inflict	verb	to cause harm or suffering	impose, cause	The sanctions inflicted heavy losses on the economy.
Jeopardise	verb	to put something at risk	endanger, risk	The leak could jeopardise national security.
Machinations	noun	secret clever plans or scheming to do harm	plotting, scheming, tricks	The fall of the coalition was blamed on the backroom machinations of a handful of power brokers.
Malevolent		wishing harm to others	spiteful, malicious, hostile, vindictive

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Mollycoddle		to overprotect / pamper	pamper, indulge, coddle, spoil
Subprime	adjective	describing loans to borrowers with poor credit and high risk	high-risk, low-quality, shaky	The 2008 crash was triggered by defaults on subprime mortgages across America.
Wreak	verb	to cause great harm or damage	inflict, cause	The floods wreaked havoc across the state.

🔥 Severity, Seriousness & Urgency ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abrupt	adjective	sudden and unexpected	sudden, quick, sharp	The minister's abrupt resignation took even his own party by surprise.
Acute	adjective	severe and serious	severe, sharp	The city faces an acute shortage of drinking water.
Astute		clever and shrewd	shrewd, sharp, canny, perceptive
Austerity	noun	strict economic policy with reduced spending	cutbacks, thrift	Years of austerity led to widespread protests across the country.
Avarice		extreme greed for wealth	greed, cupidity, rapacity, covetousness
Bleak	adjective	without hope or encouragement	gloomy, grim	The report painted a bleak picture of the job

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				market.
Compelling	adjective	very convincing or forceful	convincing, strong	The lawyer made a compelling case for reform.
Daunting	adjective	seeming difficult and scary to face	intimidating, tough	Rebuilding the city is a daunting task.
Dearth		a serious shortage	scarcity, lack, paucity, deficiency
Despondent	adjective	feeling very low and without hope	sad, hopeless, gloomy	After three failed monsoons, despondent farmers across the region demanded immediate relief.
Dichotomy		a sharp division in two	split, contrast, division, separation
Dire	adjective	extremely serious or urgent	grave, severe	Aid agencies warned of a dire humanitarian crisis.
Discourse	noun	the whole serious discussion and writing about a topic in society	public discussion, debate, the talk	Climate change now dominates the public discourse in many wealthy nations.
Dismal	adjective	very poor, gloomy and disappointing	poor, sad, bad	The dismal performance of the manufacturing sector dragged down the quarter's growth figures.
Drastic	adjective	extreme and sudden in effect	extreme, sudden, big	The pandemic forced state governments to take drastic steps to slow the spread of infection.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Emphatic	adjective	said in a strong, clear and forceful way	strong, firm, clear	The Prime Minister gave an emphatic assurance that the scheme would not be scrapped.
Endeavour	noun	a serious effort to achieve something	effort, attempt, try	The campaign is a sincere endeavour to make villages free of open drains.
Fervent	adjective	showing very strong feeling	passionate, intense	She made a fervent appeal for peace.
Frivolous		not serious, silly	flippant, trivial, superficial, petty
Gloss over	phrasal verb	to hide or ignore something bad to make it seem less serious	hide, ignore, cover	The minister's speech tried to gloss over the delays that have plagued the highway project for years.
Gruelling	adjective	very tiring and difficult	tiring, tough, hard	After a gruelling round of negotiations, the two parties finally reached a power-sharing agreement.
Hardliner	noun	someone who holds strict, uncompromising views, often in politics	tough one, strict person, firm one	Hardliners in the cabinet rejected any talks with the rebels.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Jingoism	noun	extreme, aggressive love of one's country	blind pride, nationalism, boasting	Sober debate gave way to jingoism whenever the border issue was raised.
Keen	adjective	eager or sharply aware	eager, sharp	There is keen interest in the new policy.
Lenient	adjective	not strict; gentle in punishment	soft, gentle, easy	The opposition accused the agency of being lenient with powerful offenders.
Levity	noun	a lack of seriousness; treating something serious as a joke	joking, lightness, fun	Treating a grave farmer-distress crisis with such levity does the ruling party no credit.
Lugubrious	adjective	looking or sounding very sad and gloomy	gloomy, sad, dismal	There was a lugubrious mood in the markets as one weak earnings report followed another.
Mitigation	noun	action taken to make a problem less serious	easing, reducing, softening	Climate mitigation focuses on cutting emissions, while adaptation prepares us for warming already locked in.
Onerous	adjective	needing much effort; heavy and hard to bear	heavy, hard, tough	Small businesses say the new compliance rules are far too onerous to follow.
Perspicacious		having sharp insight	astute, shrewd, discerning, perceptive

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Plea	noun	an urgent and emotional request	request, appeal, call	The court rejected the plea to delay the eviction of street vendors.
Pledge	verb/noun	to make a serious promise	promise, vow, commit	The minister pledged to double spending on public health this year.
Resilient	adjective	able to recover quickly from difficulty	tough, sturdy	The economy proved resilient despite the pandemic shock.
Stringent	adjective	strict and severe	strict, tough	The agency imposed stringent safety standards on factories.
Trenchant	adjective	sharp, clear, and forceful (about words or criticism)	sharp, strong, biting	In a trenchant editorial, the paper exposed the loopholes in the new labour law.
Vehement	adjective	showing strong, intense feeling	fierce, forceful	He was a vehement critic of the new law.
Zealot	noun	a person with extreme, uncompromising views	fanatic, extremist	A few zealots derailed the peace talks.

❓ Difference, Disagreement & Doubt ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Acrimonious		bitter and angry (dispute)	bitter, rancorous, caustic, hostile
Ambiguous	adjective	unclear, having more than one	confusing, unclear	The law's ambiguous wording

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		meaning		has confused officials.
Arbitrate	verb	To act as a neutral judge to settle a dispute between two sides	judge, settle, referee	The UN agreed to arbitrate the border dispute between the two nations.
Deficit	noun	when spending is more than income	shortage, gap	India is working to reduce its fiscal deficit.
Deviation	noun	how far a value moves away from the usual or expected one	difference, drift, gap	A small deviation from the normal range was recorded in the final week.
dis-		opposite/away	disagree, dishonest, disappear
Discrepancy	noun	a difference between two things that should match	mismatch, gap, difference	Auditors flagged a serious discrepancy between the reported spending and the actual records.
Disparity	noun	a big or unfair difference	gap, inequality	There is a wide disparity between rich and poor regions.
Equivocal		deliberately vague	ambiguous, evasive, vague, noncommittal
Fissure	noun	a deep crack or split, often between groups	crack, split, gap	Deep fissures within the coalition threatened to bring down the government.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Gulf	noun	a very wide gap or difference between two things	gap, divide, distance	The widening gulf between the rich and the poor remains the country's most pressing challenge.
Hiatus		a pause or gap	break, interval, gap, lull
Inconclusive	adjective	not giving a clear answer or final result	unclear, undecided, open	The early findings were inconclusive, so the team called for further research.
Indubitable		impossible to doubt	unquestionable, undeniable, certain
Interlocutor	noun	a person appointed to talk and negotiate, especially in a dispute	negotiator, talker, go-between	The Centre named a senior interlocutor to begin dialogue with the agitating farmers.
Interregnum	noun	a gap period between two governments or rulers	gap, in-between, pause	During the political interregnum, key reforms were left hanging in uncertainty.
Lacuna	noun	a gap or missing part, especially in a law or argument	gap, hole, missing piece	The new data-protection bill leaves a serious lacuna by not covering government surveillance.
Margin	noun	the small extra amount or gap,	gap, edge, difference	The poll has a margin of error of

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		often of error or difference		plus or minus three percentage points.
Mediate	verb	to help two sides settle a dispute	settle, help, intervene	The Centre offered to mediate between the two states over the river dispute.
Nebulous	adjective	vague, unclear and hard to understand	vague, unclear, fuzzy	The scheme rests on nebulous targets that no one can actually measure.
Nuance	noun	a small but important difference in meaning	subtlety, shade	The debate ignored the nuances of the issue.
Obfuscate	verb	to deliberately make something unclear	confuse, hide	The reply only obfuscated the real cost of the project.
Obscure	adjective/verb	not well known or hard to understand; to hide	unclear, hide	The real cause remains obscure to investigators.
Opaque	adjective	hard to see through or understand	unclear, murky	The deal's terms remain opaque to the public.
Parley	noun/verb	a formal talk to settle a dispute	talk, discussion, negotiation	After weeks of tension, the two parties agreed to a parley over the contentious border issue.
Uncertainty	noun	the range of doubt in a measurement or result	doubt, unsureness, error	The forecast carried a high degree of uncertainty about future warming.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Unequivocal	adjective	completely clear, leaving no doubt	clear, plain, certain	The panel issued an unequivocal warning that emissions must fall this decade.
Vacillate	verb	to keep changing your mind; be unable to decide	waver, hesitate, doubt	The committee vacillated for months, leaving the disaster victims without any relief.
Vague	adjective	not clear or definite	unclear, hazy	The promise was vague and lacked detail.

🌱 Beginnings, Change & Turning Points ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Adamant		Refusing to change your mind.	Stubborn, Obstinate, Inflexible, Unyielding
Adaptation	noun	changing in order to cope with new conditions	adjustment, change, coping	Coastal cities are spending billions on adaptation measures such as sea walls against rising tides.
Amend	verb	to officially change or correct a law or text	change, fix, correct	Parliament is expected to amend the law to close the loophole.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Baseline	noun	a starting level used to measure later change	starting point, base, level	Doctors recorded each patient's baseline weight before the diet began.
Catalyst	noun	something that causes change or action	trigger, spark	The protest became a catalyst for nationwide reform.
Correlate	verb	to have a connection where things change together	link, match, relate	Higher pollution levels correlated strongly with rising rates of asthma.
Correlation	noun	a link where two things change together (when one goes up, the other goes up or down)	link, connection, relationship	The paper found a strong correlation between air pollution and hospital visits for asthma.
Entrench	verb	to fix something so firmly that it is very hard to change	fix firmly, settle, root	Decades of red tape have entrenched corruption deep within the system.
Fledgling	adjective/noun	new and inexperienced	young, budding	The fledgling democracy faced many challenges.
Heterodox	adjective	not following accepted or usual beliefs	unusual, different, new	The economist proposed a heterodox remedy that mainstream policymakers dismissed.
Hidebound	adjective	stuck in old ways and unwilling to change	rigid, old-fashioned, narrow	Reform stalls because a hidebound bureaucracy resists every new idea.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Inertia	noun	a lack of movement or unwillingness to change	sluggishness, apathy	Bureaucratic inertia delayed the much-needed reform.
Intervention	noun	an action taken to change or improve a situation	action, step in, help	Early health interventions, such as vaccines, save millions of children each year.
Intransigent	adjective	refusing to change one's view	stubborn, rigid	Both sides remained intransigent, and talks failed.
Kindle	verb	to start or arouse a feeling	spark, ignite	The speech kindled hope among the people.
Nascent	adjective	just beginning to develop	new, emerging	The nascent industry needs government support.
Obdurate	adjective	stubbornly refusing to change	stubborn	The management stayed obdurate despite the strike.
Obstinate	adjective	refusing to change one's mind even when wrong	stubborn, hard-headed, fixed	The government's obstinate refusal to talk to the protesters only deepened the crisis.
Outset	noun	the very beginning of something	start, beginning, opening	From the outset, the policy lacked a clear plan to fund its lofty promises.
Overhaul	noun/verb	a thorough change or repair of a system	revamp, reform	The tax system is due for a major overhaul.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Prompt	verb	to cause something to happen or make someone act	cause, lead to, trigger	The factory fire prompted a fresh review of safety rules in the area.
Tentative	adjective	not final or sure; just a first try that may change	unsure, temporary, not fixed	Researchers offered only a tentative explanation, warning that more data was needed before any firm conclusion.
Transition	noun	the process of changing from one state to another	shift, change, switch	The IMF backed a fair transition for workers as the country moves away from coal.
Usher	verb	to bring in or begin a new period	introduce, herald	The reforms ushered in a new era of growth.
Variable	noun	a factor that can change and is measured in a study	factor, element, condition	Income, age, and diet were the main variables the scientists tracked over ten years.
Vicissitude	noun	a change of fortune, ups and downs	ups and downs	The industry has survived many vicissitudes.
Volatile	adjective	likely to change suddenly and unpredictably	unstable, erratic	Oil prices remained volatile amid the conflict.
Watershed	noun	a turning point that changes everything	turning point, milestone	The verdict was a watershed moment for civil rights.

💰 Wealth, Money & Economy ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Affluent	adjective	wealthy; having plenty of money	rich, prosperous	The policy mainly benefits affluent households.
Allocate	verb	to give out money or resources for a particular purpose	give, share out, set aside	Parliament allocated two billion dollars to renewable energy in the new budget.
Arrears	noun	money owed that should have been paid earlier	overdue payments, unpaid dues, backlog	Millions of households fell into arrears on rent as living costs spiralled.
Bailout	noun	emergency money given to rescue a failing bank, firm or country	rescue, lifeline, financial rescue	The government approved a massive bailout to stop the airline from going under.
Coffer	noun	A store of money or funds belonging to a government or organisation	treasury, funds, money store	Falling oil prices drained the kingdom's once-overflowing coffers.
Creditor	noun	a person or institution that is owed money	lender, money-owner, the one owed	Creditors agreed to restructure the loans to avoid pushing the firm into collapse.
Cupidity		greed for money	avarice, greed, acquisitiveness
Destitute	adjective	Extremely poor, lacking food, money, and the basics to live	poor, penniless, broke	The conflict left thousands of families destitute and dependent on aid.
Embezzle	verb	To steal money that you were trusted to look	steal, pocket, misuse	The minister was jailed for embezzling millions from the relief fund.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		after, usually at work
Fiscal	adjective	relating to government spending, taxes and budgets	money-related, budget, tax	The finance ministry tightened fiscal policy to bring the soaring deficit under control.
Fritter	verb	to waste money, time or chances little by little on unimportant things	waste, squander, throw away	The state must not fritter away its budget surplus on populist freebies before the polls.
Frugal	adjective	careful with money, not wasteful	careful, saving, thrifty	In a year of slowing growth, households turned more frugal with their spending.
Halcyon	adjective	peaceful, happy and prosperous (usually about the past)	calm, happy, peaceful	Many recall the halcyon days of high growth before the global slowdown set in.
Indebtedness	noun	the condition of owing a large amount of money	debt load, owing money, debt burden	Household indebtedness reached record highs as families borrowed to cover rising bills.
Largesse	noun	generous giving of money or gifts, often by the powerful	giving, generosity, handouts	Pre-election largesse in the form of free schemes has strained the state's finances.
Leverage	noun	the use of borrowed money to try to make bigger profits	borrowed money, debt power, gearing	The bank's heavy leverage magnified its losses when asset prices tumbled.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Liquidity	noun	how easily money or assets can be spent or sold quickly	ready cash, spendable money, cash flow	The central bank pumped liquidity into banks to keep lending from freezing up.
Livelihood	noun	the way someone earns money to live	income, job, living	Drought has destroyed the livelihoods of millions of farmers across the Sahel, the agency reported.
Lucrative	adjective	producing a lot of money or profit	profitable, rich	The firm won a lucrative contract to build the highway.
Magnate NEW	noun	a rich and powerful business person	root MAGN=great; tycoon, baron	A steel magnate funded the new hospital.
Monetary	adjective	relating to money supply and interest rates set by a central bank	money, cash, interest-rate	The Federal Reserve signalled a shift to looser monetary policy to support growth.
Opulent		Very rich / luxurious.	Wealthy, Rich, Luxurious, Affluent
Ostentatious	adjective	showing off wealth to impress	showy, flashy	The ostentatious wedding drew public criticism.
Plutocracy	noun	a society or government controlled by the very rich	rule by the rich, money rule	Economists warned that rising inequality risked turning the republic into a plutocracy dominated by a few billionaires.
Profligate	adjective	wasteful, especially with money or resources	wasteful, reckless, extravagant	Economists warned that profligate spending ahead of the polls

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				would blow a hole in the budget.
Redistribution	noun	sharing wealth or resources more evenly, often through taxes and welfare	sharing out, spreading, reallocation	The reform package leaned on redistribution, taxing high earners to fund services for the poor.
Remittance	noun	money sent home by workers living abroad	money sent home, transfer	Remittances from Gulf workers remain a vital source of foreign income for India.
Squander	verb	to waste something valuable	waste, fritter	The country squandered its oil wealth on vanity projects.
Stagnation	noun	a long period with no economic growth or improvement	standstill, no growth, stuck state	Years of stagnation left the country's wages flat while neighbours surged ahead.
Subsidy	noun	money the government gives to lower a cost	financial help	Farmers receive a subsidy on fertilisers.
Venal	adjective	ready to do wrong for money; corrupt	corrupt, greedy, bribable	A venal officialdom turns even basic public services into a marketplace for bribes.

🎯 Skill, Care & Wisdom ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Acumen	noun	the skill to think and judge quickly and well	sharpness, skill, sense	Her political acumen helped the party win

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				seats even in difficult constituencies.
Adept	adjective	very skilled at something	skilled, expert	She is adept at handling difficult negotiations.
Adroit		skilful, clever	deft, dexterous, skilful, nimble
Cautious		Taking care to avoid danger.	Careful, Wary, Prudent, Circumspect
Coherent	adjective	clear, logical, and easy to understand	clear, logical, sensible	The government has yet to present a coherent strategy to tackle rising unemployment.
Comprehensive	adjective	complete and covering everything	complete, full, thorough	The committee called for a comprehensive review of the country's labour laws.
Deft	adjective	skilful and quick	skilful, nimble	A deft handling of the crisis won her praise.
Diligent	adjective	hard-working and careful	careful, hard-working, sincere	Only diligent follow-up by officials ensured the project was finished on time.
Estimate	noun	a careful guess of an amount based on the information you have	guess, rough figure, calculation	The IMF's latest estimate puts global growth at just under three percent this year.
Feasibility	noun	whether something is possible and practical to do	doability, practicality, workability	The agency commissioned a feasibility study before funding the solar plant.
Feasible	adjective	possible and practical to do	possible, doable,	Critics doubt whether the ambitious plan is

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			practical	financially feasible.
Husbandry	noun	careful management of resources	care, management, saving	Prudent fiscal husbandry, not reckless spending, is what the struggling economy demands.
Inept	adjective	lacking skill; clumsy	incompetent, clumsy	The response to the disaster was widely called inept.
Meticulous	adjective	very careful and paying great attention to detail	careful, thorough, exact	The agency's meticulous investigation left the accused with little room to escape the charges.
Nimble		Quick and light in movement.	Agile, Quick, Sprightly, Deft
Nuanced	adjective	showing fine, careful differences and detail	subtle, detailed, careful	The journalist offered a nuanced account that resisted easy heroes and villains.
Painstaking	adjective	done with great care and effort	careful, thorough	Restoring the temple took painstaking work.
Pragmatic	adjective	dealing with things practically, not idealistically	practical, sensible	The leader took a pragmatic approach to the trade dispute.
Prudent	adjective	careful and sensible	wise, cautious	Prudent spending helped the state avoid debt.
Sagacious		Having good judgment.	Wise, Shrewd, Astute, Perceptive
Sage		profoundly wise	wise, sagacious, prudent, judicious

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Scrutiny	noun	careful and critical examination	inspection, review	The deal came under intense scrutiny from regulators.
Systematic	adjective	done in an organized, methodical way	orderly, planned, careful	A systematic review examined every published trial on the drug.
Viable	adjective	able to work or succeed practically	workable, possible, practical	Solar power is now a viable alternative for many rural households.
Wary	adjective	cautious about possible danger	cautious, careful	Investors remained wary of the new market.

🗣️ Speech, Persuasion & Claims ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Allege	verb	to say someone did something wrong, without proof yet	claim, accuse	The report alleges that the company hid its losses.
Arguably	adverb	it can be reasonably claimed; one could make a good case for it	possibly, you could say, perhaps	This is arguably the most important climate report published in the last decade.
Blame	verb/noun	to say someone is responsible for something bad	fault, accuse, hold responsible	Opposition leaders were quick to blame the government for the power cuts.
Breach	noun	the breaking of a rule, law, or promise	break, violation, breaking	The data leak was described as a serious breach of citizens' privacy.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Collateral	noun	something valuable promised to a lender in case a loan is not repaid	security, pledge, backing	Borrowers were forced to put up property as collateral for the emergency loans.
Contend	verb	to argue or claim that something is true; to compete	argue, claim, compete	Critics contend that the new policy favours large corporations over small traders.
Covenant	noun	A formal, often binding agreement or promise between parties	agreement, promise, pact	The UN covenant commits signatory states to protect basic human rights.
dict		say/speak	dictate, predict, contradict, verdict
Eloquent		Speaking well and convincingly.	Articulate, Fluent, Expressive, Persuasive
Implicit		implied, not directly said	tacit, understood, inferred, unspoken
Implore	verb	to beg earnestly	beg, plead	Aid groups implored the world to send help.
Indict 🆕	verb	to formally accuse of a crime	root DICT=say; charge, accuse	The officials were indicted for corruption.
Laconic	adjective	using very few words; brief in speech	short, brief, few words	The minister's laconic reply to pointed questions only deepened suspicions of a cover-up.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Panacea	noun	a cure for all problems (usually said it is NOT one)	cure-all	Technology is not a panacea for poverty.
per se	phrase	'in itself' - used to say a thing on its own, not its effects or links	in itself, by itself	The policy is not harmful per se, but its timing worried investors.
Populism	noun	a style of politics that claims to speak for ordinary people against the elite	people-first politics, mass appeal	The rise of populism across Europe has unsettled mainstream parties that long dominated the political centre.
Posit	verb	to put forward an idea as true so it can be discussed or tested	suggest, claim, assume	The authors posit that rising sea temperatures, rather than overfishing, are the main driver of the decline in cod stocks.
Purportedly	adverb	said to be true by some, but not proven	supposedly, reportedly, claimed to be	The document, purportedly leaked from the ministry, has not yet been verified by officials.
Reiterate	verb	to say something again for emphasis	repeat, restate	The minister reiterated the need for unity.
Replicate	verb	to repeat a study or test to check if the result is the same	repeat, copy, redo	Other labs failed to replicate the original findings, raising doubts about the claim.
Rhetoric	noun	persuasive (often empty) language in speech	oratory, talk	The campaign was full of fiery rhetoric but few real plans.
Tacit	adjective	understood without being said	implied, unspoken	The deal had the tacit approval of the leadership.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Vow	verb/noun	to promise firmly	promise, pledge	The minister vowed to complete the project by next year.

⚡ Strong Feeling, Energy & Zeal ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ardent		very enthusiastic/passionate	fervent, zealous, eager, keen
Daunt	verb	to make someone lose courage	scare, discourage, worry	The sheer scale of the reforms did not daunt the young administrators leading the project.
Galvanise	verb	to shock or excite someone into action	spur, stir	The disaster galvanised the public into demanding reform.
Inert	adjective	lacking energy or the will to act	still, lifeless, inactive	Civil society cannot remain inert while basic freedoms are being eroded.
Invigorate		to give energy to	energise, refresh, revitalise, stimulate

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Kinetic	adjective	full of active movement and energy	moving, active, lively	The minister promised a more kinetic foreign policy that responds quickly to events in the neighbourhood.
Lassitude	noun	a feeling of tiredness and lack of energy or interest	tiredness, weariness, dullness	A sense of policy lassitude has gripped the bureaucracy, with key reforms gathering dust for years.
Lethargic		Lacking energy.	Sluggish, Lazy, Listless, Languid
Lethargy	noun	a lack of energy or enthusiasm	tiredness, sluggishness	Economic lethargy gripped the region for years.
Mobilise	verb	to organise and bring people together for a cause or action	rally, gather, stir up	Activists used encrypted apps to mobilise thousands of protesters within hours of the announcement.
Obsequious	adjective	too eager to please / overly obedient	servile	His obsequious manner annoyed his colleagues.
Pugnacious		eager to fight/argue	combative, belligerent, aggressive, bellicose
Pusillanimous	adjective	cowardly, lacking courage	cowardly	Opponents accused the government of a pusillanimous response.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Tepid	adjective	showing little enthusiasm; lukewarm	lukewarm, half-hearted	The plan met with a tepid response from voters.
Truculent	adjective	aggressive and eager to argue	hostile, fighting	The minister gave a truculent reply to the press.
Vibrant		Full of energy / colour.	Lively, Energetic, Dynamic, Spirited
Voracious	adjective	wanting a very large amount; very greedy or eager	greedy, hungry, eager	The city's voracious demand for water has drained the surrounding rivers dry.
Zeal	noun	great energy or enthusiasm	passion, fervour	Reformers pursued change with great zeal.
Zealous	adjective	showing great energy and strong eagerness for a cause	eager, keen, passionate	Overly zealous enforcement of the rules has frightened away honest small investors.

🔍 Examination, Judgement & Standards ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Assess	verb	to judge the value, size, or quality of something	judge, check, rate	The World Bank assessed the damage from the floods at over two billion dollars.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Benchmark	noun	a standard level used to measure or compare performance	standard, marker, reference point	The fund failed to beat its benchmark index for the third year running.
Discern	verb	to notice or understand something clearly	notice, see, judge	It is hard to discern any real change in policy beyond the government's bold announcements.
Gauge	verb/noun	to measure or judge	measure, assess	The survey tried to gauge public opinion.
Probe	noun/verb	an investigation	inquiry, examination	A probe has been ordered into the bridge collapse.
Quantify	verb	to measure or express something as a number	measure, count, calculate	The study sought to quantify the economic cost of air pollution.
Scrutinise		To look at very closely.	Examine, Inspect, Investigate, Scan
spec/spect		see/look	inspect, spectator, suspect, prospect
Yardstick	noun	a standard used for comparison	measure, benchmark	Literacy is a key yardstick of development.

🤝 Agreement, Unity & Cooperation ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abrogate	verb	to officially cancel a law or agreement	cancel, end, scrap	The state cannot abrogate fundamental

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				rights even during an emergency.
Accede	verb	To agree to a demand after pressure; also to formally join a treaty or take high office	agree, accept, join	The government acceded to the rebels' demands for a power-sharing deal.
Accord	noun	a formal agreement between countries or sides	agreement, deal, pact	The peace accord ended thirty years of armed conflict.
Aggregate	adjective	combined or added together into one total	total, combined, whole	The aggregate effect of small savings across millions of homes was huge.
co-/con-		with/together	cooperate, connect, coexist
co/con		together/with	cooperate, connect, collaborate, contract
Coalesce	verb	to come together and form one group or whole	unite, join, merge	Several small farmer unions coalesced into a single body to press their demands.
Coalition	noun	a group of parties or people working together	alliance, union	A fragile coalition government took power after the election.
Cohesion	noun	the state of sticking together or unity	unity, togetherness	The crisis tested the cohesion of the alliance.
Cohesive	adjective	well united and working closely together	united, joined, together	A cohesive opposition could pose a real challenge to the ruling party in the next election.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Compatible	adjective	able to exist or work well together	matching, suited, fitting	The reforms must be compatible with the country's wider development goals.
Compliance	noun	the act of obeying a rule or law	obeying, following, agreement	Many factories were shut down for non-compliance with the new pollution norms.
Consensus	noun	general agreement among a group	agreement, accord	Members failed to reach a consensus on the new policy.
Convene	verb	to call people together for a meeting	gather, meet, call together	The Speaker convened an emergency session of Parliament to discuss the flood crisis.
Converge	verb	to come together from different directions to one point	meet, join, come together	Thousands of protesters converged on the state capital to demand higher wages.
Cumulative	adjective	increasing by being added together step by step	growing, adding up, total	The cumulative effect of small yearly emissions has been a sharp rise in sea levels.
Discordant	adjective	not in agreement; clashing	clashing, conflicting, mismatched	The two datasets gave discordant results on rainfall trends.
Disparate	adjective	made up of very different things that don't normally go together	different, varied, mixed	The protest movement united disparate groups, from students to farmers, behind a single demand.
Multilateral	adjective	involving many countries acting together	many-sided, group, joint	The crisis can only be solved through a

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				multilateral effort backed by the UN.
Persuade		To make someone agree.	Convince, Coax, Cajole, Win over
Ratification	noun	The official approval that makes a treaty or agreement legally binding	approval, sign-off, confirmation	The trade pact awaits ratification by all twelve member parliaments.
Reconcile	verb	to restore friendly relations; to make agree	settle, harmonise	It is hard to reconcile growth with environmental care.
Stipulate	verb	to state a clear condition in an agreement	specify, require	The contract stipulates a strict deadline.
uni		one	unite, unique, universe, unicorn
Unilateral	adjective	done by one country alone, without agreement from others	one-sided, alone, solo	Critics called the unilateral airstrikes a dangerous break from allied policy.

⭐ Certainty, Importance & Authority ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ascertain	verb	to find out something for certain	find out, confirm, check	Inspectors worked to ascertain the cause of the collapse.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Endemic	adjective	regularly found in a certain place or group; a constant, settled presence	always present, native, built-in	Corruption had become endemic in the country's police force.
Incumbent	noun/adjective	the person currently holding an office; also a duty placed on someone	sitting leader, current holder, duty	The incumbent chief minister faces strong anti-establishment sentiment ahead of the polls.
Ineluctable	adjective	impossible to avoid	unavoidable	Reform became an ineluctable necessity.
Inevitable	adjective	certain to happen, unavoidable	unavoidable, certain	Some job losses were inevitable after the merger.
Insurrection	noun	a violent uprising against authority or the state	revolt, uprising, rebellion	Leaders of the failed insurrection were charged with treason.
Mandate	noun/verb	official order or authority to act	order, authority	The new government claimed a strong mandate from voters.
Onus	noun	responsibility or duty for something	burden, duty	The onus is on the company to prove its product is safe.
Paramount	adjective	more important than anything else	supreme, chief	Public safety must be of paramount importance.
Predominant	adjective	the most common or strongest	main, leading, chief	Coal remains the predominant source of power in several economies.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Propensity	noun	a natural tendency to behave in a certain way	tendency, habit, leaning	The report noted the agency's propensity to delay action until a crisis erupts.
Random	adjective	chosen by chance, with no set order or pattern	by chance, mixed, unplanned	In a random trial, half the patients were given the drug and half a placebo.
Remit	noun	The area of authority or the set of tasks a person or body is responsible for	duty, scope, job	Climate policy falls outside the central bank's official remit.
Tariff	noun	a tax placed on goods coming into a country	import tax, duty, charge	Washington imposed steep tariffs on imported steel, angering its trading partners.

🌫 Hidden, Unclear & Secret ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abstruse		hard to understand	obscure, recondite, esoteric, complex
Arcane		secret, mysterious	mysterious, cryptic, esoteric, obscure

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Belie	verb	to give a false idea; to hide the truth	hide, mask, disguise	The calm figures in the report belie the deep distress in rural households.
Clandestine	adjective	done secretly, especially something illegal or sneaky	secret, hidden, undercover	Investigators uncovered a clandestine programme to enrich uranium.
Confound	verb	to confuse results by mixing in a hidden cause	confuse, muddle, mislead	Smoking may confound the link between coffee and heart disease.
Cryptic		having a hidden meaning	enigmatic, obscure, mysterious, ambiguous
Dissemble		to hide true feelings/intent	disguise, feign, mask, pretend
Divulge	verb	to reveal secret information	reveal, tell, share	Officials refused to divulge the names of the firms under investigation for tax fraud.
Esoteric	adjective	understood by only a few experts	specialised, obscure	The debate turned into an esoteric discussion few followed.
Furtive		Done secretly to avoid notice.	Secret, Stealthy, Sneaky, Clandestine
Latent	adjective	existing but not yet visible or active	hidden, dormant	The policy exposed latent tensions in society.
Machination	noun	a secret clever plan to do something harmful	scheme, plot, trick	The Opposition accused ruling parties of political machinations to topple the state government.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Recondite		little known, obscure	abstruse, esoteric, arcane, profound
Transparent		Transparent (light passes through) ↔ opaque (light does not).
Underlying	adjective	hidden beneath the surface; the real cause behind something	hidden, basic, root	The study aimed to find the underlying cause of the recurring infections.
Veneer	noun	a thin, often false, outer appearance	facade, cover	Behind the veneer of calm lay deep anxiety.

 Real, Concrete & Practical ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Authentic		True and original, not fake.	Genuine, Real, Bona fide, Legitimate bona fide	adjective	genuine; real and sincere, not fake	genuine, real, honest	Only bona fide refugees qualify for the protection scheme.
Empirical	adjective	based on real observation, testing, or experience - not just on ideas or guessing	tested, observed, real-world	The study offers empirical evidence that early schooling improves later income, drawn from data on 50,000 children.
Germane	adjective	closely connected and relevant to the topic	related, relevant, fitting	The judge ruled that the old records were germane to the present case.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Illusory	adjective	based on something false; not real	false, fake, unreal	Promises of overnight prosperity are illusory and only deepen public disappointment.
Ontological	adjective	about the nature of being - what things really are, or whether they exist at all	about existence, about what is real	Philosophers raised ontological questions about whether a digital mind could truly be said to exist.
Ostensible	adjective	appearing true on the surface, but maybe not real	apparent, so-called	The ostensible reason for the visit was trade.
Perfunctory	adjective	done quickly without real care	careless, half-hearted	The inquiry was perfunctory and ignored key facts.
Pertinent	adjective	relevant and to the point	relevant, apt	She raised several pertinent questions in the debate.
Robust	adjective	strong and healthy	strong, sturdy	The country posted robust economic growth.
Tangible	adjective	real and able to be clearly seen or felt	real, concrete	The talks produced no tangible results.
Travesty	noun	a bad and unfair copy or example that insults the real thing	mockery, joke, insult	Denying the accused a lawyer was called a travesty of justice by the high court.

✊ Reject, Revenge & Force ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abandon		To abandon = to give up or forsake.	Forsake

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Annexation	noun	when one country takes over and adds another's land to its own by force	takeover, seizing land, grabbing	Most UN members refused to recognise the annexation of the peninsula in 2014.
Capitulate	verb	to give up / surrender	surrender	The company refused to capitulate to the demands.
Cede	verb	to give up power or territory	surrender, yield	The party refused to cede control of the council.
Coup	noun	a sudden, often violent, seizure of government power	takeover, overthrow, power grab	The military staged a coup and detained the elected leaders overnight.
Defy	verb	to openly refuse to obey something	disobey, resist, ignore	Thousands of farmers continued to defy the ban and marched towards the capital.
Depose	verb	To remove a ruler or leader from power, often by force	overthrow, remove, topple	The general was deposed in a bloodless coup and fled abroad.
Forfeit	verb	to lose a right or possession as a penalty	lose, give up	Defaulters may forfeit their deposits.
ject		throw	reject, eject, project, inject
Reprisal	noun	an act of revenge or retaliation	retaliation, revenge	Witnesses stayed silent for fear of reprisal.
Repudiate		to reject/deny	reject, disown, renounce, disavow
Spurn	verb	to reject with contempt	reject, refuse	The offer was spurned by union leaders.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Usurp	verb	to take power or a position by force, without the right	seize, grab, take over	Critics warned that the ordinance allowed the executive to usurp powers meant for Parliament.
Vindictive		seeking revenge	vengeful, spiteful, rancorous, unforgiving
Wrest	verb	to take something by force or effort	seize, grab	The opposition wrested control of three states.

⏳ Time, Lateness & Approach ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Approximate	adjective	close to but not exactly correct	rough, near, close	The report gave an approximate figure for global carbon emissions.
Belated	adjective	coming later than it should	late, overdue	The government offered a belated apology to the victims.
Concise		Short and clear.	Brief, Succinct, Terse, Pithy
Ephemeral	adjective	lasting a very short time	short-lived	Online fame is often ephemeral.
Harbinger	noun	a sign of something to come	omen, forerunner	Falling sales were a harbinger of recession.
Imminent	adjective	about to happen very soon	impending, near	Forecasters warned of an imminent cyclone

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				along the coast.
Indelible		impossible to remove	permanent, ineradicable, lasting, fixed
Loom	verb	to appear close and threatening; about to happen	approach, threaten, near	A severe water crisis looms over several cities this summer.
Looming	adjective	approaching and threatening	impending, approaching	Businesses are worried about a looming recession.
Methodology	noun	the set of methods used to do research	method, approach, procedure	Critics questioned the study's methodology and small sample size.
Provisional	adjective	for now only; likely to be changed later	temporary, for now, not final	The provisional figures suggest a record harvest, but they may be revised.
Stopgap	noun/adjective	a temporary fix used until a proper solution is found	temporary fix, makeshift, quick patch	Critics dismissed the cash handout as a stopgap that ignored the deeper crisis of rural unemployment.
Sustainable	adjective	able to continue for a long time without using up resources or harming the planet	lasting, green, long-term	The UN's Sustainable Development Goals aim to end poverty by 2030 without damaging the environment.
Transient		Lasting a short time.	Temporary, Fleeting, Brief, Momentary

🎭 Lies, Trickery & Deception ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Beguile		to charm/deceive	charm, captivate, enchant; trick, dupe
Chicanery	noun	clever trickery to deceive	trickery, cheating	Voters were warned against electoral chicanery.
Deceive		To trick / fool.	Cheat, Mislead, Dupe, Defraud
Duplicitous		two-faced, deceptive	deceitful, double-dealing, dishonest
Fabricate		To make up something false.	Invent, Concoct, Falsify, Forge
Forge	verb	to build or create (a bond); to fake	build, create	The two nations forged a new trade partnership.
Gambit	noun	a clever first move made to gain an advantage	move, trick, plan	The early announcement of welfare schemes was seen as a political gambit before the polls.
Histrionic	adjective	overly dramatic and fake in showing feelings	dramatic, fake, showy	The histrionic walkout in Parliament drew cameras but solved nothing.
Mendacious	adjective	lying, not telling the truth	dishonest, false	The report was dismissed as mendacious propaganda.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Prevaricate	verb	to avoid telling the truth directly; to speak in a misleading way	dodge, mislead, evade	Instead of owning the failure, officials chose to prevaricate, blaming everyone but themselves.
Sanctimonious	adjective	acting as if you are morally better than others in a fake way	preachy, self-righteous, smug	The editorial mocked the sanctimonious tone of leaders who themselves flouted the rules.
Spurious	adjective	fake, not genuine	false, fake	The market was flooded with spurious medicines.

🤦 Problems, Obstacles & Setbacks ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Conundrum		a confusing problem/riddle	puzzle, riddle, enigma, dilemma
Extricate		to free from difficulty	disentangle, release, free, liberate
Flaw	noun	a fault or weakness that makes something not perfect	fault, weakness, defect	Experts pointed out a basic flaw in the design of the new policy.
Grapple	verb	to struggle hard to deal with a problem	struggle, fight, handle	States continue to grapple with rising unemployment among the youth.
Grievance	noun	a complaint about unfair treatment	complaint, problem, grudge	The protesters said the government had ignored their long-standing grievances.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Heuristic	noun	a quick rule of thumb that helps you solve a problem fast, even if not perfectly	shortcut, rough rule, quick method	Investors often rely on a simple heuristic rather than analysing every data point.
Hurdle	noun	a problem or difficulty that must be solved	problem, barrier, obstacle	Poor road connectivity remains the biggest hurdle to rural growth.
Immaculate		Perfectly clean / without fault.	Spotless, Flawless, Pristine, Pure
Persist	verb	to continue firmly despite difficulty	continue, last, remain	Unemployment is likely to persist unless new industries are set up.
Procrastinate		To keep putting off work.	Delay, Postpone, Defer, Dawdle
Respite		a short rest from difficulty	break, relief, breather, reprieve
Sanguine	adjective	hopeful and positive even in difficulty	optimistic, hopeful	Economists remain sanguine about next year's growth.
Setback	noun	a problem that delays or stops progress	delay, problem, blow	The project suffered a major setback after the central funds were withheld.
Tackle	verb	to deal with a difficult problem	handle, face, deal with	The state has launched a fresh drive to tackle child malnutrition.

🧠 Thinking, Reasoning & Memory ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Causation	noun	the relationship where one thing directly causes another	cause, link, reason	Correlation does not prove causation, the authors cautioned.
Cite	verb	to mention something as a reason or proof	mention, quote, point to	The court cited the right to privacy while striking down the surveillance order.
Deliberate	adjective/verb	done on purpose; or to think carefully before deciding	planned, intended, discuss	The committee will deliberate for two weeks before announcing its final decision.
Ergo	adverb	therefore; for that reason (sounds formal or logical)	therefore, so, thus	Supply fell while demand rose; ergo, prices climbed.
Factor	noun	one thing that helps cause or shape a result	cause, reason, part	Diet and exercise were the two biggest factors linked to a longer life.
flect/flex		bend	reflect, flexible, deflect, inflection
Hence	adverb	for this reason; therefore	so, therefore, that is why	Costs rose sharply; hence the steep increase in ticket prices.
Infer	verb	to work out a conclusion from the evidence	conclude, work out, gather	From the fossil record, scientists infer that the climate was once far warmer.
Mull	verb	to think about carefully	consider	The cabinet is mulling a new tax on luxury cars.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Reckon	verb	to think or consider; to deal with	believe, calculate	Analysts reckon growth will slow next year.
Wanton	adjective	deliberate and without reason or care	reckless, needless	The report described wanton destruction of forests.
Warrant	verb	to be a good enough reason for something; to deserve	deserve, justify, need	The scale of the tragedy warrants an independent inquiry, not a quiet internal review.

⚖️ Fairness, Honesty & Truth ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Candid	adjective	honest and direct in speaking	honest, frank, open	In a candid interview, the chief minister admitted the policy had failed.
cred		believe	credit, credible, incredible, credentials
Devout		deeply religious / sincere	pious, devoted, reverent, dedicated
Dubious	adjective	doubtful, possibly not honest or true	doubtful, shady, unsure	The company's dubious accounting practices finally drew the attention of investigators.
Egalitarian	adjective	believing everyone should be equal and treated the same	equal, fair, level	The Nordic model is often praised as egalitarian, with policies designed to keep the gap between rich and poor small.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Equitable	adjective	fair and just to all	fair, just	Activists demanded a more equitable sharing of resources.
Forthright		direct and honest	candid, frank, blunt, straightforward
Holistic	adjective	looking at the whole thing, not just separate parts	whole, complete, all-round	The Lancet review recommended a holistic approach to health that includes housing and clean water.
Limpid		clear and transparent	clear, lucid, pellucid, crystalline
Lucid		Easy to understand.	Clear, Coherent, Intelligible, Transparent
Marginal	adjective	very small; only just big enough to notice	tiny, slight, small	The vaccine showed only a marginal benefit in older patients, the researchers cautioned.
Normative	adjective	about how things should be, not just how they are - based on rules or values	about what is right, value-based, should-based	The paper shifts from describing inequality to making a normative claim that it must be reduced.
Obfuscation	noun	deliberately making something confusing to hide the truth	confusion, cover-up, blurring	The minister's reply was a masterclass in obfuscation, dodging every pointed question.
Paradox	noun	something that seems to	contradiction, puzzle, strange	The study highlights the paradox of choice: more

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		contradict itself but may still be true	truth	options can leave people less happy.
Pellucid		very clear / easy to understand	lucid, transparent, limpid, crystal-clear
Systemic	adjective	affecting a whole system, not just one part; built into how things work	system-wide, deep-rooted, whole-system	The crash exposed systemic weaknesses in the global banking system.
Veracious		truthful	honest, truthful, accurate, candid
Veracity NEW	noun	truthfulness; accuracy	root VER=truth; honesty	The court questioned the veracity of the witness.
Verify NEW	verb	to check that something is true	root VER=truth; confirm	Officials verify each document before approval.
Warranted	adjective	justified by the facts; reasonable	justified, fair, deserved	Given the rising case numbers, stricter travel rules now appear warranted.

Hostility, Bitterness & Stubbornness ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Acrimony	noun	bitter, angry feelings between people	bitterness	The talks ended in acrimony with no deal.
Animosity		strong hostility	hostility, antagonism, enmity, hatred

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Backlash	noun	a strong, angry reaction from many people against something	anger, protest, reaction	The sudden hike in toll charges triggered a sharp backlash from commuters across the highway.
Divisive	adjective	causing people to split into hostile groups	splitting, dividing, separating	The leader was criticised for making divisive remarks ahead of the elections.
Hostile		Showing strong dislike / enmity.	Unfriendly, Antagonistic, Aggressive, Belligerent
Inimical	adjective	harmful or hostile to something	harmful, against	Such policies are inimical to small traders.
mal		bad	malice, malevolent, malfunction, malign
Mollify	verb	to make someone less angry; to calm them down	calm, soothe, soften	The government cut fuel taxes to mollify the protesting transport unions.
Notwithstanding	preposition	in spite of; despite	despite, even with, regardless of	Notwithstanding the funding cuts, the laboratory completed its trials on schedule.
Placate	verb	to calm someone who is angry	pacify, soothe	The minister tried to placate angry protesters.
Provoke NEW	verb	to deliberately make someone	root VOKE=call forth; incite	The remarks provoked protests

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		angry or cause a reaction		across the city.
Rancour		bitter resentment	bitterness, animosity, enmity, malice
Recalcitrant	adjective	stubbornly refusing to obey	defiant, stubborn	A few recalcitrant states blocked the reform.
Virulent		extremely harmful/hostile	poisonous, venomous, deadly, hostile
Vituperative	adjective	full of bitter, abusive criticism	harshly critical	The campaign turned vituperative in its final week.

👑 Power, Control & Influence ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abide	verb	to accept and follow a rule or decision	follow, obey, accept	The court made it clear that all parties must abide by its order, irrespective of their political differences.
Adhere	verb	to stick to or strictly follow a rule	stick, follow, keep to	Banks have been told to adhere to the new lending norms issued by the Reserve Bank of India.
Autonomy	noun	the right of a region to govern its own affairs	self-rule, independence, freedom	The province was promised greater autonomy in return for laying down arms.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Capacity	noun	the ability or resources to do something	ability, power, room	The programme aims to build local capacity so communities can manage their own water supply.
Clout	noun	power or influence to affect decisions	power, influence, weight	The trade body still carries enormous clout in shaping export policy.
Disenfranchise	verb	to take away someone's right to vote or their power in society	silence, exclude, strip rights	Critics argued that the new voter-ID law would disenfranchise millions of poor and rural citizens who lacked formal documents.
Flout	verb	to openly break or ignore a rule	break, ignore, defy	Builders who flout safety norms must face strict penalties, the editorial argued.
flu/flux		flow	fluent, influence, fluid, influx
Oust	verb	to force someone out of power	remove, throw out	The party voted to oust its own leader.
Wield	verb	to hold and use power or a tool	exercise, hold	The committee wields great influence over policy.

😀 Hope, Calm & Positivity ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Assuage		to ease/soothe	relieve, soothe, alleviate, mollify
Buoyant	adjective	cheerful or economically strong	lively, upbeat	The market stayed buoyant despite the

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				bad news.
Disenchant	verb	to make someone lose hope or trust	disillusion, sour	Many young voters feel disenchanted with politics.
Forbearance	noun	the quality of being patient and self-controlled, especially when others test you	patience, calm, restraint	The Opposition praised the Speaker's forbearance during the stormy debate in Parliament.
Genial		cheerful and friendly	affable, cordial, amiable, warm
Implacable 🆕	adjective	impossible to calm or satisfy	root PLAC=please + IM=not; unyielding	He faced implacable opposition from the unions.
Jovial		Full of fun and good humour.	Cheerful, Merry, Jolly, Convivial
Jubilant	adjective	feeling and showing great joy	very happy, joyful, cheerful	Party workers were jubilant after the surprise win, but the editorial urged them to focus on governance instead.
Lull	noun/verb	a quiet or calm period	pause, calm	There was a brief lull in the fighting.
Nonchalant	adjective	calm and not worried, showing no concern	casual, cool, unbothered	The officials seemed nonchalant about the rising debt, brushing aside the warnings.
Phlegmatic		calm, unemotional	composed, placid, stolid, imperturbable

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Quixotic	adjective	unrealistic and impractical in a hopeful way	unrealistic, dreamy	His quixotic plan to end all poverty won few backers.

🌑 Bad, Harmful & Unpleasant ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Adverse	adjective	harmful or unfavourable	bad, harmful, negative	Experts warned of the adverse effects of rising prices on poor families.
Aftermath	noun	the situation after a bad event	consequences, fallout	Thousands were left homeless in the aftermath of the flood.
Boorish		rough and bad-mannered	uncouth, crude, loutish, vulgar
Brazen	adjective	bold and shameless	shameless, bold	The brazen theft happened in broad daylight.
Breed	verb	to cause something, usually something bad, to develop	cause, create, produce	Delays in justice only breed anger and distrust among ordinary citizens.
Egregious	adjective	extremely bad, shockingly wrong	terrible	The audit revealed egregious misuse of public funds.
Flagrant	adjective	clearly and openly bad; shocking	obvious, shocking, open	The demolition was a flagrant violation of the court's stay order.
Galvanic	adjective	giving a sudden shock that makes people act	shocking, exciting, rousing	The verdict had a galvanic effect on activists, who took to the streets within hours.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Glaring	adjective	very obvious and bad; easy to notice	obvious, clear, plain	The audit exposed glaring lapses in the way relief funds were distributed during the floods.
Harrowing	adjective	very distressing and painful to experience	painful, scary, shocking	Survivors gave harrowing accounts of the night the floods swept their village.
Heinous	adjective	extremely wicked or shocking	evil, terrible, cruel	The court called the attack one of the most heinous crimes the city had witnessed.
Impudent		boldly disrespectful	impertinent, insolent, brazen, cheeky
Iniquity	noun	great injustice or wickedness	wrong, evil, unfairness	The court called the bonded-labour system a gross iniquity that shames a modern democracy.
mal-		bad	malfunction, malnutrition, maltreat
Malignant		very harmful / spiteful	virulent, deadly, malevolent, cancerous
mis-		wrong/bad	misunderstand, misguide, misuse
Notorious	adjective	famous for something bad	infamous, well-known	The area is notorious for its high crime rate.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Noxious		poisonous, harmful	toxic, poisonous, harmful, deadly
Ominous	adjective	suggesting something bad will happen	threatening, sinister	There were ominous signs of an economic slowdown.
Petulant		childishly bad-tempered	sulky, peevish, irritable, querulous
Repercussion	noun	an indirect, usually bad, consequence	consequence, fallout	The decision had serious economic repercussions.
Surly		bad-tempered, unfriendly	sullen, grumpy, churlish, gruff
Tantamount	adjective	equal to; the same as (something bad)	equal to, the same as, as good as	Silence from the leadership, the writer said, is tantamount to approving the violence.

📦 Amount, Size & Plenty ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Abound	verb	to exist in large numbers; to be plenty	fill, swarm, overflow	Rumours abound in the city ahead of the crucial state elections next month.
Abundant		Abundant = existing in large quantities = plentiful.	Plentiful
Ample	adjective	more than enough; plenty	enough, plenty, large	The government claims it has ample reserves of

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				food grains to manage any crisis.
Average	noun	the middle or typical amount, found by adding values and dividing	typical, middle, mean	On average, patients recovered two days faster with the new treatment.
Copious		abundant, plentiful	abundant, profuse, ample, bountiful
Decimate		to destroy a large part	devastate, ravage, annihilate, wipe out
Deficient	adjective	not having enough of something needed	lacking, short, missing	Rural health centres remain deficient in both doctors and basic medicines.
Exodus	noun	a large number of people leaving a place	departure, flight, outflow	The lockdown triggered a massive exodus of migrant workers from the big cities.
Exorbitant	adjective	far too high in price or amount	costly, steep, excessive	Patients complained of exorbitant fees charged by private hospitals during the crisis.
Grandiose	adjective	too large or showy in plan, often more impressive in words than in reality	showy, huge, over-the-top	The minister's grandiose promise of smart cities remains far from reality in most districts.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Hefty	adjective	large in amount, size, or weight	large, heavy	The court imposed a hefty fine on the firm.
magn		great/large	magnify, magnificent, magnitude, magnate
Magnitude	noun	the size or scale of something	size, scale, amount	The magnitude of the temperature rise surprised even the most senior climate scientists.
Meagre	adjective	very small in amount; inadequate	scanty, poor	Workers earn a meagre wage for long hours.
Measure	verb	to find out the size, amount, or level of something	check, count, size up	The team used satellites to measure the rate of ice loss in Antarctica.
Myriad	noun/adjective	a very large number	countless, many	The reform faces a myriad of challenges.
Paucity	noun	a shortage or very small amount of something	shortage, lack, scarcity	The paucity of reliable data has made it nearly impossible to gauge the scheme's real impact.
Plausible	adjective	believable; reasonable enough to be true	believable, likely, reasonable	The authors offer a plausible explanation for the sudden fall in cases.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Plethora		an over-abundance	excess, surplus, glut, profusion
Profuse		given/produced in plenty	abundant, lavish, copious, prolific
Redundant		not needed, excess	superfluous, surplus, unnecessary
Significant	adjective	large or important enough to matter, especially in results	important, large, notable	The drop in infections was statistically significant, the Lancet study reported.
Substantial	adjective	large in size or amount; clearly important	big, large, sizeable	The report called for a substantial increase in funding for rural clinics.
super-/sur-		above/over	superman, supervise, surplus, surface
Superfluous		more than needed	excessive, redundant, surplus, unneeded
Surfeit		an excess, too much	glut, surplus, overabundance, excess
Surplus	noun	the extra amount left when income is more than spending	extra, leftover, spare amount	Germany ran a large trade surplus, exporting far more than it bought from abroad.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Yield	verb	to produce or give a result or amount	produce, give, return	The new farming method yielded twenty percent more grain per acre.

□ Difference, Comparison & Opposite ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Antithesis	noun	the exact opposite	opposite	His calm style was the antithesis of his rival's.
Control	noun	a group in a test that gets no treatment, used to compare results	comparison group, baseline	Compared with the control group, the treated patients showed clear improvement.
Converse	noun	the opposite of a statement; the reverse	opposite, reverse, flip side	The data show that wealth improves health, but the converse — that good health builds wealth — also holds.
de jure	adjective	existing by law; official, on paper (the opposite of de facto)	by law, officially, legally	De jure the regions are equal, but funding tells a different story.
Dwarf	verb	to make something else look small in comparison	outsize, overshadow, beat	This year's defence budget dwarfs the amount set aside for public health and education combined.
Exemplary		serving as a perfect model	model, ideal, commendable, admirable

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Generous		"Generous" means giving freely; its opposite is "stingy," meaning unwilling to give or spend.
Juxtapose	verb	to place side by side for comparison	contrast, compare	The article juxtaposes wealth and poverty.
Paradigm	noun	a typical model or pattern of doing something	model, pattern	Remote work has caused a paradigm shift in offices.
Paragon		a model of excellence	exemplar, ideal, model, paradigm
Trend	noun	the general direction in which something is changing over time	pattern, direction, drift	The report highlights a worrying upward trend in youth unemployment across the region.

 Catch, Hold & Seize ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
cap/cept		take	capture, accept, receive, capable
Captivate		To attract and hold attention.	Charm, Enchant, Fascinate, Mesmerise
Elusive	adjective	hard to find, catch, or achieve	hard to catch, slippery, tricky	Despite years of policy reform, lasting peace in the region remains elusive.
Nab	verb	to catch or arrest	catch, arrest	Police nabbed two suspects near the border.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
ten/tain		hold	tenant, retain, contain, tenacious

📌 Cause, Effect & Consequence ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Annul	verb	To officially cancel a law, contract, or result so it no longer counts	cancel, void, scrap	The court annulled the election results after evidence of widespread fraud.
Contentious	adjective	likely to cause disagreement	controversial, disputed	The contentious bill divided lawmakers sharply.
Corollary	noun	a result or fact that naturally follows from something already proven	natural result, follow-on, knock-on point	A corollary of rising sea levels is the loss of low-lying farmland.
Engender	verb	to cause or produce a feeling or situation	cause, create, produce	Transparent governance can engender greater confidence among ordinary citizens.
Incendiary	adjective	likely to cause anger or violence	fiery, inflaming, provoking	Leaders must avoid incendiary speeches that can ignite communal tensions overnight.
Margin of error	noun	the small range a result may be off by	allowance, give-or-take, range	The poll showed 52 percent support, with a margin of error of three points.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Offset	verb	to balance out or cancel one effect with another	balance, cancel out, make up for	Gains in solar power were offset by rising demand for air conditioning.
Outcome	noun	the result or effect that comes out of something	result, effect, end	Better health outcomes were seen in regions with more clean drinking water.
Outlier	noun	a result that is very different from all the others	odd one out, exception, stray result	One outlier showed a huge effect, but the rest of the data was flat.
Ramification	noun	A result or consequence of an action, often complex and far-reaching	consequence, result, effect	Economists are still tracing the ramifications of the trade war.
Thereby	adverb	by that means; as a result of that	so, thus, in that way	The reforms cut paperwork and thereby freed doctors to see more patients.
Thus	adverb	therefore; in this way; as a result	so, therefore, in this way	Rainfall was poor; the harvest, thus, fell short of targets.

▲ Highest & Lowest Points ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Culminate	verb	to reach a final or highest point	end, climax	Months of protests culminated in a mass strike.
Heyday	noun	the time when something was most	peak, prime, best	In its heyday, the textile hub employed thousands

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		successful or powerful		and powered the local economy.
Nadir	noun	the lowest or worst point of something	lowest point, bottom, rock-bottom	Relations between the two neighbours hit a nadir after the border clash last winter.
Zenith	noun	the highest or most successful point	peak, top, height	The movement reached its zenith when millions joined the march across the country.

🍀 Luck, Chance & Fate ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Fortuitous	adjective	happening by lucky chance rather than by plan	lucky, chance, unplanned	The timing of the rate cut was fortuitous, coming just as inflation began to cool.
Hapless	adjective	unlucky and unable to do anything about it	unlucky, helpless, poor	Hapless commuters were left stranded for hours after the sudden transport strike.

🗨️ Talkative, Loud & Wordy ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Florid	adjective	too fancy or overly decorated in language	showy, fancy, flowery	The minister's florid speech offered little in the way of concrete plans.
Garrulous		talking too much, rambling	loquacious, chatty, voluble, talkative

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Grandiloquent		pompous, lofty in language	bombastic, pompous, magniloquent, florid
Loquacious	adjective	talking a lot; very talkative	talkative, chatty, wordy	The usually loquacious spokesman fell oddly silent when reporters raised the funding scandal.
Turgid		swollen / pompously wordy	bloated, inflated, grandiloquent
Vociferous	adjective	loud and strong in expressing opinions	loud, noisy, outspoken	Vociferous protests outside Parliament forced the government to review the controversial clause.

😢 Sadness, Regret & Complaint ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Contrite		feeling deep regret	remorseful, penitent, repentant, apologetic
Lachrymose	adjective	tearful or causing tears; full of sadness	tearful, sad, weepy	The editorial dismissed the leader's lachrymose appeal as a calculated bid for sympathy before the verdict.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Lament	verb	to express deep sadness or regret about something	mourn, regret, grieve	Editorials across the nation lamented the loss of the veteran journalist.
Penitent		feeling sorrow for wrongs	contrite, repentant, remorseful, rueful

🦅 Boldness, Recklessness & Daring ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Audacious	adjective	very bold and daring, sometimes shockingly so	bold, daring, fearless	The startup's audacious plan to electrify every village bus fleet drew both praise and doubt.
Headlong	adverb/adjective	rushing in fast without thinking	reckless, hasty, quick	The headlong rush to privatise has left many safeguards behind.
Impetuous	adjective	acting quickly without thinking	hasty, rash, sudden	The government's impetuous decision to demonetise caught even its own officials by surprise.
Intrepid		Showing no fear.	Fearless, Brave, Bold, Dauntless

😨 Shyness, Caution & Restraint ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
circum		around	circumference, circumnavigate, circumspect
Circumspect 🆕	adjective	cautious; considering all risks	root SPEC=look + CIRCUM=around; wary	Banks turned circumspect after the market crash.
Diffident	adjective	shy and lacking confidence in oneself	shy, timid, unsure	A diffident response from the regulator failed to reassure jittery markets.
Dissolute		lacking moral restraint	debauched, depraved, licentious, decadent
Licentious	adjective	behaving without moral restraint, especially in a sexual or lawless way	wild, immoral, unrestrained	The film board defended its cuts, arguing the scenes were gratuitously licentious rather than artistic.
Reluctant		Not wanting to do something.	Unwilling, Hesitant, Disinclined, Loath
Reticent	adjective	unwilling to speak much or share one's thoughts	quiet, shy, silent	The government was reticent about the real cost of the bailout package.
Taciturn		saying very little	reticent, reserved, uncommunicative, tight-lipped

□ Unity, Sameness & Division ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Cleave	verb	to split or divide sharply	split, divide, cut	The new bill threatens to cleave the alliance along religious and regional lines.
Concurrent	adjective	happening at the same time	at once, parallel, simultaneous	The country faced concurrent crises of drought and debt.
Consistent	adjective	staying the same; not changing from test to test	steady, even, dependable	The results were consistent across all three independent laboratories.
Demarcate	verb	to set or mark the boundaries or limits of something	mark out, set limits, divide	The treaty sought to clearly demarcate the contested border that had triggered repeated clashes.
Detachment	noun	a small group of troops sent on a separate task; also being emotionally distant	unit, small force, group	A detachment of peacekeepers was stationed along the contested border.
Discrete	adjective	separate and individually distinct	separate, distinct, apart	Researchers identified four discrete stages in the disease's progression.
Factional	adjective	relating to small rival groups inside a larger party or movement	split, in-fighting, group-vs-group	Factional infighting paralysed the cabinet just as the country faced its worst economic crisis in decades.
fract/frag		break	fracture, fragment, fragile, fraction
Homogeneous	adjective	made of parts that are all the same	same, uniform, alike	India is far too diverse to be governed as a single

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				homogeneous bloc.
Partition	noun	the division of one country or land into separate parts	division, split, separation	The partition of the colony left millions displaced across new borders.
Polarisation	noun	when people split into two opposing groups with no middle ground	division, splitting, taking sides	Researchers found that social media accelerates political polarisation by pushing users toward more extreme views.
Polarise	verb	to split people into two opposing groups	divide, split, separate	The new law threatens to polarise an already divided society along religious lines.
Schism		a deep split/division	rift, division, rupture, breach
Secession	noun	The act of a region formally breaking away from a country to form its own	breakaway, split, separation	The northern province's vote for secession alarmed neighbouring states.

🛠️ Correct, Fix & Improve ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ameliorate		to make better	improve, enhance, better, upgrade
Quandary	noun	a difficult situation where it is hard to decide what to do	fix, confusion, hard choice	The government faces a quandary between controlling prices and

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				supporting struggling farmers.
Rectify	verb	to correct something that is wrong	correct, fix, repair	The board promised to rectify the accounting errors flagged by auditors.
Redress	noun/verb	to correct or set right a wrong	fix, correct, make right	Citizens deserve a swift mechanism to redress complaints against officials.
Specious	adjective	looks correct but is actually false	misleading	The argument was specious and fell apart under questioning.

📏 Use, Need & Involve ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Deplete	verb	to use up something until very little is left	use up, drain, empty	Years of over-extraction have depleted the city's once-rich groundwater reserves.
Entail	verb	to involve something as a necessary part	involve, require, need	Reforming the power sector will entail tough choices that few governments enjoy making.
Hinge	verb	to depend completely on something	depend, rely, rest	The success of the scheme hinges on how quickly funds reach the districts.

🚫 Useless, Hopeless & Empty ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Bombastic		high-sounding but empty	pompous, grandiose, inflated, turgid
Futile	adjective	useless because it will not work	useless, pointless, vain	Without real reform, such half-measures will prove futile, the columnist warned.
vac		empty	vacant, vacuum, evacuate, vacation

🧩 Complicated, Confusing & Vague ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Labyrinthine	adjective	extremely complicated and confusing, like a maze	complex, confusing, twisting	Small traders complain that the labyrinthine tax-filing process drives them to expensive consultants they can ill afford.

💥 Quality, Character & Behaviour ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Brusque		abrupt and rude in manner	curt, blunt, gruff, short duc/duct		lead	conduct, educate, induce, produce

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Legitimacy	noun	the quality of being accepted as rightful and lawful by the people	rightfulness, acceptance, validity	After the disputed count, the new government struggled to establish its legitimacy in the eyes of voters.
Mercurial	adjective	changing moods or behaviour quickly and unpredictably	moody, changing, unstable	Investors remain wary of the mercurial policy shifts that have rattled markets twice this year.

Other & Mixed ↑ top

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
a priori	adjective	based on reasoning or theory rather than on actual experience	in theory, beforehand, from reasoning	There is no a priori reason to assume the trend will continue.
Aberration		a departure from the norm	anomaly, deviation, oddity, abnormality
Abscond		to flee secretly	flee, decamp, escape, run off
Accelerate		To make faster.	Hasten, Expedite, Quicken, Speed up
Acquiesce		to accept reluctantly	comply, consent, assent, concur
ad hoc	adjective	made or done only for one purpose,	for-this-only, on-the-spot, unplanned	The UN set up an ad hoc committee to

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		right now, not planned in advance		handle the sudden refugee crisis.
Adjacent	adjective	lying next to something	next to, nearby, neighbouring	Flooding affected the river and all adjacent farmland.
Affable		friendly and easy to talk to	genial, amiable, cordial, congenial
Affront	noun	a rude act or insult that hurts pride	insult, offence, slight	The minister's remark was seen as an affront to the dignity of the farming community.
Albeit	conjunction	although; even though	though, even if, while	Growth returned in the third quarter, albeit at a slower pace than hoped.
Aloof		distant, unfriendly	detached, remote, standoffish, indifferent
Altruistic		selflessly caring for others	selfless, unselfish, philanthropic, charitable am/amor		love	amiable, amorous, enamour, amity

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ambivalent	adjective	having mixed feelings; pulled both ways	unsure, of two minds, mixed	Voters appear deeply ambivalent about the reforms, supporting the goal but fearing the cost.
Amiable		Pleasant and easy to like.	Friendly, Affable, Cordial, Genial
Amity		friendly relations	friendship, harmony, goodwill, cordiality
Analyse	verb	to study something carefully to understand its parts and meaning	study, examine, break down	Scientists analysed blood samples from thousands of patients to find the pattern.
ann/enn		year	annual, anniversary, biennial, perennial
Annihilate	verb	to destroy something completely	wipe out, destroy, crush	Commanders warned that nuclear weapons could annihilate entire cities.
Anomaly	noun	something that is different from normal	oddity, irregularity	Scientists noticed an anomaly in the climate data.
anthrop		human	anthropology, philanthropy, misanthrope

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
anti-		against	antibiotic, antisocial, antidote
Apathetic		showing no interest	indifferent, unconcerned, uninterested, listless
Apathy		Not caring at all.	Indifference, Unconcern, Detachment, Lethargy
Arduous		Needing hard effort.	Difficult, Strenuous, Laborious, Taxing
Assiduous NEW	adjective	showing great care and effort	root SID/SED=sit at; diligent, hardworking	Assiduous preparation earned her the top rank.
Asylum	noun	protection given by a country to someone fleeing danger	refuge, safety, shelter	The activist sought asylum at a foreign embassy after the crackdown.
Attainable	adjective	able to be achieved	reachable, doable, achievable	The UN said the target is attainable with sustained funding.
aud		hear	audio, audience, audible, auditorium
auto		self	automatic, autograph,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			autonomy, autobiography
bene		good	benefit, benevolent, beneficial, benefactor
bene-		good	benefit, benevolent
Benevolent		Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly.	Kind
Benign	adjective	gentle and harmless; not dangerous	kind, gentle, harmless	What looked like a benign policy change quietly raised the tax burden on small traders.
bi		two	bicycle, bilingual, binary, bisect
Bid	noun	an attempt or effort to do something	attempt, try, effort	In a bid to reduce pollution, the city banned old diesel vehicles.
bio		life	biology, biography, antibiotic, symbiosis
Brinkmanship	noun	pushing a dangerous situation to the edge to win	risky pressure tactics	The nuclear brinkmanship alarmed the world.
Brittle		Easily broken.	Fragile, Delicate, Frail, Breakable

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Brunt	noun	the main force or worst part of something	impact, force	Poor families bore the brunt of the price rise.
Capricious		unpredictable, whimsical	fickle, erratic, mercurial, changeable
Cardinal		of central importance	fundamental, primary, key, principal
carn		flesh	carnivore, carnage, incarnate
Castigate		to criticise severely	reprimand, rebuke, chastise, berate
Cataclysm		a violent upheaval/disaster	catastrophe, calamity, disaster, upheaval
Catharsis		emotional release/cleansing	purification, release, purgation, relief
Caveat	noun	a warning or condition to keep in mind	warning, condition	The report comes with one caveat: the data is incomplete.
chron		time	chronic, chronology, anachronism
chrono		time	chronology, chronic, synchronise, chronicle

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Churlish		rude and mean-spirited	boorish, surly, ill-mannered, uncivil
Cogent	adjective	clear, logical and convincing	strong, clear, convincing	The defence presented a cogent argument that the evidence had been gathered unlawfully.
cogn		know	cognition, recognise, incognito
Commodity	noun	a basic traded good like oil, gold, wheat or metal	raw good, traded item, basic product	Commodity prices soared as the war disrupted supplies of wheat and crude oil.
Complicit	adjective	taking part in or helping with something wrong	involved, guilty, helping	The report suggests that some officials were complicit in covering up the scam.
Comprise	verb	to be made up of parts	consist of, contain, include	The survey comprises responses from forty countries.
Concede	verb	to admit something is true or to give in	admit, accept, give in	The chief minister finally conceded that the relief work had been delayed.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Conceivably	adverb	it is possible to imagine; it could possibly happen	possibly, maybe, it could be	The drug could conceivably be repurposed to treat other inflammatory diseases.
Conspicuous		Easily seen / standing out.	Obvious, Prominent, Noticeable, Striking
Constituency	noun	the group of voters in an area, or the people a leader represents	voter base, district, supporters	The minister risked alienating her rural constituency by backing the unpopular land reform.
Contiguous	adjective	touching or next to each other	touching, neighbouring, joined	The disease spread quickly across contiguous districts.
Contingent	adjective	depending on something else happening first	depending on, based on, conditional	Further funding is contingent on the government meeting its reform targets.
Cordial		Warm and polite.	Warm, Friendly, Hearty, Genial
Credible	adjective	able to be believed or trusted	believable, trusted, reliable	Without credible evidence, the police could not file a charge sheet against the accused.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Credulous NEW	adjective	too ready to believe things	root CRED=believe; gullible, naive	Credulous investors lost money in the fake scheme.
Cynical	adjective	believing people act only out of self-interest	distrustful, sceptical	Voters have grown cynical about politicians' promises.
Data	noun	facts, numbers, or information collected for study	facts, figures, information	The data showed that vaccination rates rose sharply after the campaign began.
de facto	phrase	Latin for 'in fact'; existing in reality even if not officially	in practice, actually, in reality	With no formal treaty, the ceasefire became the de facto policy along the border.
Default	noun	failure to repay a debt as promised	non-payment, missed payment, failure to pay	Argentina edged toward another sovereign default after talks with creditors collapsed.
Delineate	verb	to describe or mark out something clearly and in detail	outline, describe, draw	The report delineates three possible pathways by which the country could reach net-zero emissions by 2050.
Demographic	adjective	relating to the makeup of a	population-based, group-	The party's defeat reflected

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		population (age, income, race, etc.)	related	deep demographic shifts, as younger voters abandoned its traditional base.
Demolish		To knock down completely.	Destroy, Raze, Wreck, Flatten
Deploy	verb	to put resources or people into action where needed	send, use, put to work	The UN deployed emergency teams to the flood zone within forty-eight hours.
Deride	verb	to make fun of someone in a cruel way	mock, laugh at, insult	Critics were quick to deride the scheme as a publicity stunt with little real benefit.
Derive	verb	to get or work out something from a source	get from, draw from, obtain	The figures were derived from census records going back fifty years.
Deteriorating	adjective	getting worse over time	worsening, falling, weakening	The deteriorating air quality in Delhi has forced the government to shut schools for several days each winter.
Devaluation	noun	an official lowering of a currency's value against others	lowering, markdown, cut in value	China's surprise devaluation of the yuan rattled global markets for several weeks.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Diaspora	noun	a people scattered far from their original homeland	scattered community, migrants abroad, exiles	The diaspora sent billions home in remittances each year.
Diminishing returns	noun	the point where extra effort or input gives less and less benefit	less and less gain, smaller payoff, fading benefit	After a certain dose, the drug showed diminishing returns and no extra effect.
Discard		To get rid of.	Throw away, Dump, Jettison, Scrap
Discernible	adjective	able to be seen or noticed, if you look carefully	noticeable, visible, clear	There was no discernible difference between the treated and untreated groups.
Discernment	noun	good judgement in telling things apart	good judgement, insight, care	Reviewers praised the author's discernment in weighing the evidence.
Disparage		to belittle	denigrate, deprecate, decry, demean

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Dissent	noun	strong disagreement with an official idea or decision	protest, disagreement, objection	In a healthy democracy, the right to dissent must be protected rather than treated as a crime.
Dissident	noun	a person who openly disagrees with and opposes the government	opponent, rebel, critic	The jailed dissident became a global symbol of resistance against the authoritarian regime.
doc		teach	doctor, document, docile, doctrine
Dormant	adjective	not active for now but able to become active later	sleeping, inactive, resting	The peace deal only kept the conflict dormant; the underlying disputes were never resolved.
Downturn	noun	a period when business and the economy get worse	slump, dip, slowdown	Retailers slashed prices to survive the sharpest downturn in consumer spending in years.
Dwell	verb	to keep thinking or talking about something for a long time	focus, linger, brood	Instead of dwelling on past failures, the new policy looks ahead to long-term reform.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Electorate	noun	all the people who are allowed to vote in an election	the voters, voting public	Pollsters struggled to read an electorate that was angrier and more unpredictable than in past cycles.
Elucidate	verb	to make something clear by explaining it fully	explain, clarify, clear up	The authors elucidate the mechanism by which the drug lowers blood pressure.
Emanate	verb	to come out from a source	come from, flow out, arise	Much of the criticism appears to emanate from those who feel left out of the reforms.
Embellish		To make more beautiful.	Decorate, Adorn, Beautify, Ornament
Empathy 🆕	noun	ability to share another's feelings	root PATH=feeling + EM=in; understanding	Good leaders show empathy in a crisis.
Emulate	verb	to copy someone because you admire them and want to do as well	copy, imitate, follow	Other states would do well to emulate Kerala's success in raising literacy levels.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Encroach	verb	To slowly move into or take over land, rights, or space that is not yours	intrude, creep in, trespass	Farms are increasingly encroaching on protected rainforest land.
Enigmatic		puzzling, mysterious	mysterious, cryptic, inscrutable, baffling
Envoy	noun	an official sent by a government to represent it abroad	messenger, representative, diplomat	A special envoy was dispatched to broker talks between the rivals.
Epistemic	adjective	about knowledge - how we know what we know, and how sure we can be	to do with knowing, knowledge-based	The report warns of an epistemic crisis, in which citizens can no longer agree on basic facts.
Epitome		a perfect example	embodiment, personification, archetype, essence
equ		equal	equal, equate, equanimity, equivalent
Equanimity		mental calmness	composure, poise, serenity, aplomb
Eradicate		To remove completely.	Eliminate, Abolish, Exterminate, Uproot

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Erstwhile	adjective	former; from an earlier time	former, past, old	The erstwhile rivals surprised everyone by sharing the stage at the rally.
Erudite		scholarly, learned	knowledgeable, learned, scholarly, well-read
Euphony		a pleasant sound	melody, harmony, musicality
Evidence	noun	facts or signs that show something is true	proof, facts, signs	There is growing evidence that the new drug lowers blood pressure in older patients.
ex-		out/former	exit, export, ex-president
Excoriate		to criticise harshly	censure, lambaste, castigate, flay
Exculpate		to free from guilt	exonerate, absolve, acquit, clear
Explicit		clearly and directly stated	clear, definite, unambiguous, express
Extrapolate	verb	to use known data to estimate something beyond it	predict, estimate, project	From current trends, economists extrapolate that the debt will

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				double within fifteen years.
Facet	noun	one side or part of something	side, part, aspect	The report examines every facet of the rural employment crisis.
Facile		easy / superficial	effortless, simplistic, shallow, glib
Facilitate	verb	to make a process easier	help, ease, assist	The new platform facilitates data sharing between hospitals.
Factor in	verb	to include something when you make a calculation or decision	include, count, allow for	Once you factor in rising fuel costs, the savings almost disappear.
Fastidious		very fussy, hard to please	meticulous, finicky, particular, choosy
fer		carry/bring	transfer, refer, confer, fertile
Fiasco		a complete failure	debacle, disaster, flop, catastrophe
fid		faith/trust	fidelity, confide, bona fide, infidel
Fidelity 🆕	noun	faithfulness; loyalty	root FID=faith; devotion	The contract demands strict fidelity to the rules.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Flounder	verb	to struggle and fail to make progress	struggle, fail, stumble	The startup began to flounder once funding dried up and orders slowed sharply.
fore-		before/front	forecast, foresee, forehead
Framework	noun	a basic structure of rules or ideas used to plan something	plan, structure, system	The Paris Agreement provides a global framework for cutting greenhouse gas emissions.
Franchise	noun	the right to vote in elections	the vote, voting right	The 1928 reform finally extended the franchise to all women over twenty-one.
Fraught	adjective	full of problems, danger or worry	risky, tense, worried	The border talks remained fraught with mistrust on both sides.
Gauche		socially awkward	clumsy, tactless, inept, maladroit
gen		birth/race	generate, genesis, genetics, genocide
geo		earth	geography, geology, geometry, geothermal

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Gerrymander	verb	to redraw voting area borders unfairly to help one party win	rig, manipulate, twist	Critics allege the new constituency map was gerrymandered to favour the ruling party.
Glib		fluent but insincere	smooth-talking, slick, facile, suave
Governance	noun	the way a country or organisation is run and controlled	management, ruling, running	Weak governance and corruption slowed the delivery of aid, according to the World Bank assessment.
Grandstanding	noun	acting or speaking only to impress people, not to help	showing off, posing, boasting	Critics dismissed the leader's remarks as mere grandstanding ahead of the budget session.
graph/gram		write/draw	autograph, telegram, photograph, diagram
Grassroots	adjective	starting from ordinary people at the local level, not from leaders at the top	local, bottom-up, community	The campaign relied on a grassroots network of volunteers rather than wealthy corporate donors.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Gregarious	adjective	fond of company; very social and friendly	social, friendly, outgoing	The gregarious leader drew large crowds wherever his roadshow travelled.
Haughty		Thinking you're better than others.	Arrogant, Proud, Disdainful, Snobbish
Hegemon	noun	a country or group that dominates and controls others	leader, boss, ruler	Smaller nations fear the rising hegemon will dictate terms of regional trade.
Henceforth	adverb	from now on; starting from this time	from now on, in future, after this	The agency announced that, henceforth, all data would be made public.
Hitherto	adverb	up until now; before this time	so far, until now, previously	The telescope revealed structures hitherto unseen at the edge of the galaxy.
hydro		water	hydrogen, dehydrate, hydroelectric
Hypothesis	noun	an idea or guess that you test to see if it is true	guess, idea, theory	Researchers tested the hypothesis that warmer oceans speed up the spread of the disease.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Iconoclast		one who attacks traditions	rebel, dissenter, nonconformist, maverick
Ignominy		public shame, humiliation	disgrace, dishonour, humiliation, infamy
Impeccable		faultless	flawless, perfect, unblemished, exemplary
Imperious		arrogantly commanding	domineering, overbearing, high-handed
Impervious		not affected/penetrated	resistant, immune, impenetrable, unaffected
Impunity	noun	freedom from being punished for a wrong act	no punishment, escape, freedom	The editorial warned that when powerful officials act with impunity, ordinary citizens lose all faith in the rule of law.
in-/im-/il-/ir-		not	inactive, impossible, illegal, irregular
Inadvertent	adjective	done without intention, by accident	accidental, unintended	An inadvertent error delayed the entire project.
Incessant		never-ending	ceaseless, constant,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			continual, perpetual
Inclusive	adjective	including everyone, leaving no group out	open, welcoming, for all	The UN praised the country's inclusive policy that brought women into the workforce.
Incredulous 🆕	adjective	unwilling to believe something	root CRED=believe + IN=not; disbelieving	She gave an incredulous look at the sudden claim.
Indefatigable		tireless	untiring, unflagging, tireless, persistent
Indicate	verb	to show or point to something	show, point to, suggest	Early results indicate that the vaccine is safe for young children.
Indigenous	adjective	Belonging naturally to a place; the original people or species of a region	native, original, local	The dam project threatens lands long held by indigenous communities.
Indigent		very poor, needy	destitute, impoverished, penniless
Indomitable		impossible to defeat	unconquerable, invincible, unyielding, resolute

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ineffable		too great to express in words	indescribable, inexpressible, unutterable
Inherent	adjective	existing as a natural, permanent part of something; built in	built-in, natural, part of	There is an inherent risk in lending money to unstable governments.
Inimitable	adjective	so good or unique it cannot be copied	one-of-a-kind, special, unmatched	The veteran cartoonist captured the nation's mood with his inimitable wit.
Innate		inborn, natural	inborn, inherent, intrinsic, congenital
Innocuous	adjective	harmless	safe, harmless	What seemed an innocuous remark triggered a big row.
Insatiable	adjective	impossible to satisfy; always wanting more	greedy, never full, endless	The city's insatiable demand for water is rapidly draining the lakes around it.
Inscrutable		impossible to interpret	unfathomable, impenetrable, mysterious
Insofar	adverb	to the extent that; only as far as	as much as, to the point that, where	The model is useful insofar as it predicts short-term shifts, but it

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				fails over longer periods.
insofar as	phrase	to the extent that; only as much as	as far as, to the degree that	The plan helps the poor only insofar as funds actually reach them.
Insolent		rudely disrespectful	impertinent, impudent, insulting, cheeky
Insolvent	adjective	unable to pay one's debts	broke, bankrupt, ruined	Several power companies turned insolvent after the regulator slashed tariffs.
Insular	adjective	closed off and not open to other ideas or people	closed, narrow, cut-off	Critics say the party's insular leadership has lost touch with the aspirations of young India.
Insurgency	noun	an armed uprising against a government	rebellion, revolt, uprising	The decade-long insurgency has displaced millions across the region.
Insurmountable	adjective	too great to be overcome	impossible, too big, unbeatable	With political will, even seemingly insurmountable challenges of poverty can be tackled.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
inter alia	phrase	'among other things' - shows the listed items are only some of many	among other things, including	The report criticised, inter alia, weak data and poor oversight.
inter-		between	international, interact, intervene
intra-		within	intranet, intravenous
Intrinsic	adjective	belonging naturally to something	natural, built-in, basic	Trust is an intrinsic part of any functioning market.
Inundate		to flood / overwhelm	flood, swamp, deluge, overwhelm
Inveterate		long-established, habitual	confirmed, chronic, ingrained, hardened
Inviolable		must never be broken	sacrosanct, sacred, unassailable, secure
Jaded		tired and bored from overuse	weary, world-weary, sated, fatigued
Juncture	noun	an important point in time	moment, point, stage	At this critical juncture, the economy needs steady hands rather than

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				populist promises.
Jurisprudence	noun	the study or philosophy of law	law theory, legal thinking, law study	The verdict marks an important advance in Indian environmental jurisprudence.
Knell	noun	a sign or sound warning that something is ending or dying	death sign, warning bell, end signal	Falling enrolment may sound the knell for hundreds of small government schools across the state.
Lavish		Spending/giving very freely.	Extravagant, Generous, Opulent, Profuse
Levy	noun/verb	a tax or charge placed by the government	tax, charge, fee	The new levy on imported goods drew sharp criticism from traders.
Liminal	adjective	being at a boundary or in-between, transitional stage	in-between, borderline, transitional	The economy occupies a liminal space, no longer poor but not yet rich, where old policies no longer fit.
Linear	adjective	changing at a steady, straight-line rate	straight, even, steady	The relationship between dose and effect was roughly linear up to a point.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Litany	noun	a long, repeated list, usually of complaints or problems	long list, string, series	The audit report reads like a litany of lapses, from missing files to inflated bills.
Lopsided	adjective	uneven or unbalanced	uneven, unequal	Critics called the deal lopsided and unfair.
Macabre		gruesome, disturbing	grisly, gruesome, ghastly, morbid
Magnanimity		generosity of spirit	generosity, nobility, benevolence, charity
Magnanimous		generous, big-hearted	benevolent, generous, charitable, noble
Maladroit		clumsy, unskilful	inept, bungling, gauche, awkward
Manifest	verb	to show or appear clearly	show, appear, reveal	The disease often manifests as fatigue long before other symptoms emerge.
Manifold	adjective	many and of several kinds	many, varied, numerous	The benefits of vaccination are manifold and well documented.
Maverick		an independent nonconformist	rebel, individualist, free

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			spirit, dissenter
max		greatest	maximum, maximise
Mellifluous		sweet-sounding (voice/music)	dulcet, honeyed, melodious, euphonious
min		small/less	minimum, minor, diminish, minute
Misnomer	noun	a wrong or unsuitable name for something	wrong name, false label, misleading title	Calling the levy a 'service charge' is a misnomer, since citizens get no service in return.
mit/miss		send	transmit, mission, dismiss, submit mono		one/single	monarch, monopoly, monotone, monologue
mort		death	mortal, mortuary, immortal, mortician
multi		many	multiple, multitude, multimedia
Munificence	noun	great generosity in giving	generosity, giving, kindness	The trust survives on the munificence of a few wealthy donors.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Munificent	adjective	very generous in giving	generous, giving, kind	The munificent corporate donations to the relief fund were welcome, yet they masked the state's own failures.
nat		born	native, nation, natal, innate
Nationalism	noun	strong loyalty to one's own nation, often above other nations	patriotism, national pride, loyalty	Rising nationalism has made cross-border cooperation far harder.
Negligence	noun	failure to take proper care	carelessness, neglect, oversight	The inquiry blamed the disaster on official negligence.
Negligible	adjective	so small it can be safely ignored	tiny, unimportant, barely there	The added risk from the chemical was found to be negligible at normal doses.
Nemesis		an unbeatable rival / downfall	archenemy, downfall, undoing, bane
Nominal	adjective	in name only; very small or not really meaningful	in name only, tiny, slight	The state retains nominal control of the port, but a foreign firm runs daily operations.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
non-		not	nonsense, nonstop, nonfiction
nota bene	abbreviation	'note well' (often written N.B.) - draws attention to an important point	note this, take note, important	N.B.: the figures exclude inflation, the authors stressed.
Notable	adjective	important or worth noticing	important, well-known, special	There has been a notable improvement in literacy rates over the decade.
Nullify	verb	to make something lose its legal force or value; to cancel it	cancel, void, undo	The High Court moved to nullify the contract awarded without open bidding.
Observe	verb	to watch carefully and notice what happens	watch, notice, see	Astronomers observed the distant star dimming over several weeks.
Obstreperous		noisy and unruly	unruly, boisterous, rowdy, disorderly
omni		all	omnipresent, omnipotent, omniscient
Ostensibly	adverb	according to what is claimed, though perhaps not truly	supposedly, apparently, seemingly	The troops were sent ostensibly to keep the peace, but critics saw a land grab.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Ostracise		to exclude/banish	shun, exclude, banish, blackball
over-		too much	overeat, overwork, overflow
Overheating	noun	an economy growing too fast, risking high inflation	running too hot, overgrowth, boiling over	Analysts warned of overheating as cheap credit fuelled runaway property prices.
Palpable	adjective	so strong it can almost be felt or touched	clear, obvious, strong	There was palpable anger among voters over the sudden hike in electricity bills.
Pandemic	noun	A disease outbreak that spreads across many countries or the whole world	global outbreak, plague, epidemic	The Lancet study modelled how quickly a new pandemic could spread.
Pariah		a social outcast	outcast, untouchable, leper, undesirable
Parsimonious		extremely stingy	miserly, niggardly, tight-fisted, frugal
Partisanship	noun	strong, often blind loyalty to one's own political party	party loyalty, bias, side-taking	Deep partisanship in the legislature stalled even routine bills that once passed with broad support.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
path		feeling/disease	sympathy, empathy, apathy, pathology
Pedantic		over-concerned with rules/detail	bookish, dogmatic, fussy, hairsplitting
Penurious		extremely poor / stingy	destitute, indigent, impoverished; miserly
Penury	noun	the state of being extremely poor	poverty, want, hardship	A single hospital bill can push a near-poor family back into penury, the survey warns.
per capita	phrase	Latin for 'per head' - for each person, used when comparing countries or groups	per person, for each person	Per capita income in the region has doubled over the past two decades.
Perfidious		treacherous, disloyal	treacherous, traitorous, faithless, deceitful
Perfidy	noun	the act of betraying trust; disloyalty	betrayal, cheating, lies	Allies accused the regime of perfidy after it broke the ceasefire pact.
Peripatetic	adjective	travelling from place to place; not settled in one spot	travelling, roaming, wandering	The peripatetic life of migrant workers leaves their children with broken,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				interrupted schooling.
Pernickety		fussy about small details	finicky, fastidious, fussy, particular
Perplex		To confuse greatly.	Confuse, Baffle, Puzzle, Bewilder
phil		love	philosophy, philanthropy, bibliophile
phon		sound	telephone, phonetics, symphony, microphone
photo		light	photograph, photosynthesis, photon
Pious		religiously devoted	devout, reverent, godly, spiritual
Plateau	noun	a level where something stops rising and stays flat	flat stage, level off, steady point	After years of rapid growth, vaccination rates have hit a plateau across the region.
Plebiscite	noun	a direct vote by all the people on a single important question	public vote, referendum	The government called a plebiscite to let citizens decide directly whether to amend the constitution.
Polity	noun	an organised society or state with its own	state, society, nation	A healthy polity, the scholars

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
		form of government		argued, depends on citizens who trust shared institutions.
poly		many	polygon, polyglot, polygamy
Pompous		self-important, grandiose	pretentious, bombastic, grandiloquent
port		carry	portable, transport, export, import pos/pon		place/put	position, postpone, compose, deposit
post-		after	postpone, postscript, postwar
Postulate	verb	to suggest an idea as a starting point, before it is proven	suggest, propose, assume	The authors postulate that warming oceans are driving the change in fish migration.
pre-		before	preview, predict, prepare, prefix
Precarious	adjective	unsafe, uncertain, or dangerous	risky, shaky	Millions live in precarious financial conditions.
Preliminary	adjective	coming before the main part; early	early, first, initial	Preliminary results suggest

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				the vaccine is safe.
Presumably	adverb	probably; this is what we assume without full proof	probably, likely, I assume	The funds were, presumably, redirected to defence, though the budget gave no clear breakdown.
Pretentious		trying to seem important	affected, showy, grandiose, snobbish
Prevailing	adjective	most common or widely accepted at a given time	common, usual, dominant	The prevailing view among analysts is that interest rates will hold steady.
prima facie	phrase	on first look; based on what seems true at first	at first sight, on the surface, apparently	There is prima facie evidence of fraud, though a full inquiry is still needed.
Pristine		spotlessly clean / original	immaculate, unspoiled, pure, untouched pro rata	adjective	in proportion; shared according to each share or part	in proportion, share by share	Losses were split pro rata among the shareholders.
Prodigal		wastefully extravagant	spendthrift, lavish, profligate, wasteful
Profane		disrespectful to sacred things	blasphemous, irreverent, sacrilegious

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Projection	noun	a forecast of what a number will be in the future	forecast, prediction, outlook	IMF projections suggest the economy will grow by three percent next year.
Promulgate		to make known publicly	proclaim, announce, declare, publicise
Pronounced	adjective	very clear and strong; easy to notice	strong, marked, obvious	The effect was most pronounced among children under the age of five.
Prospective	adjective	likely to happen or be in the future	future, expected, possible	The trial followed prospective patients over five years.
Protectionism	noun	shielding home industries by taxing or blocking foreign goods	trade barriers, home-favouring, walls on trade	Rising protectionism threatened to unravel decades of open global trade.
psych		mind	psychology, psychic, psychiatry
Pulchritude		physical beauty	beauty, loveliness, comeliness, grace
Purported	adjective	claimed to be, but not proven	alleged, supposed, so-called	The purported recording of the call could not be confirmed as genuine.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Putrid		rotten, decaying	decayed, rotten, decomposed, festering
Pyrrhic	adjective	a win that costs so much it feels like a loss	costly victory	It was a Pyrrhic victory — they won the case but lost everything.
Querulous	adjective	complaining in an irritated, whining way	complaining, whining, grumpy	The minister dismissed the querulous opposition as unwilling to offer real solutions.
Quintessential	adjective	the most perfect example of something	typical, classic	It was a quintessential case of bureaucratic delay.
Rapacious		aggressively greedy	grasping, voracious, predatory, avaricious
Rapprochement	noun	a renewal of friendly relations between countries after tension	making up, warming ties, reconciliation	Trade talks signalled a cautious rapprochement between the old foes.
Ratio	noun	a way of comparing two amounts by how many times one fits the other	proportion, balance, rate	The study reported a ratio of three women to every two men in the workforce.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Recession	noun	a period when the economy shrinks and business slows for months	slowdown, slump, hard times	The IMF warned that rising interest rates could push the eurozone into a mild recession.
Reel	verb	to be badly shaken or struggling	suffer	The region is reeling under a severe drought.
Requisite	adjective	needed or required for a particular purpose	needed, required, must-have	Many nurses left because hospitals lacked the requisite funding and staff.
Reverence		Deep respect.	Respect, Awe, Veneration, Admiration
Reverent		showing deep respect	respectful, worshipful, devout, awed
rupt		break	rupture, interrupt, corrupt, bankrupt
Sacrosanct		too important to interfere with	sacred, inviolable, hallowed, untouchable
Salient	adjective	most noticeable or important	key, prominent	The editor summarised the salient points of the report.
Salubrious		healthy, wholesome	healthful, wholesome,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
			beneficial, hygienic
Sample	noun	a small group chosen to stand for a much larger group	group, selection, portion	The survey used a sample of 2,000 adults to represent the whole country.
Sanctioned	adjective	hit with official penalties (or, confusingly, officially approved)	penalised, punished, banned	The sanctioned officials are barred from travelling to Europe.
Sangfroid	noun	calmness under pressure	composure, cool head	She handled the crisis with remarkable sangfroid.
Scarce	adjective	very little available; in short supply	rare, few, limited	Jobs have become scarce for young graduates in small towns.
sci		know	science, conscious, omniscient, prescient
scrib/script		write	scribble, manuscript, describe, inscription
Sedentary NEW	adjective	involving much sitting; inactive	root SED=sit; inactive	A sedentary lifestyle raises health risks.
semi-		half	semicircle, semifinal

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
sens/sent		feel	sensitive, sentiment, consent, resent
Servile		slave-like, submissive	subservient, obsequious, menial, grovelling
Sovereign	adjective	belonging to a national government (often about debt)	national, state, government	Investors grew nervous as Greece's sovereign debt climbed toward unsustainable levels.
Speculative	adjective	based on guessing, not on solid proof	guessing, uncertain, unproven	Such estimates remain highly speculative until field data become available.
Sporadic	adjective	happening now and then, not regularly	occasional, scattered, irregular	Sporadic protests broke out in several districts over the fuel price hike.
Squalid		dirty and wretched	filthy, dingy, sordid, seedy
Stagnant	adjective	not moving or growing	still, flat	Wages have remained stagnant for years.
Stakeholder	noun	a person or group affected by or interested in a decision	player, party, group involved	The report urged governments to consult all stakeholders,

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
				from farmers to investors, before approving the dam.
status quo	noun	the current situation; the way things are now	the current state, things as they are	Voters frustrated with the status quo backed the new party.
Suave		smoothly polite and charming	urbane, debonair, polished, smooth
sub-		under/below	submarine, subway, substandard
Suffrage	noun	the right to vote in political elections	the vote, voting right	The suffrage movement fought for decades before women were granted equal voting rights.
Supercilious		arrogantly superior	haughty, disdainful, condescending, snooty
Surmise	verb	to guess something from the small clues you have	guess, suppose, figure out	From the wear patterns, archaeologists surmise the tools were used for grinding grain.
Surreptitious		done secretly	clandestine, furtive, covert, stealthy

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Survey	noun	a set of questions asked to many people to gather information	poll, study, questionnaire	A nationwide survey found that two in three workers want to keep working from home.
Sustained	adjective	kept going over time without stopping	steady, ongoing, continued	Sustained investment lifted millions out of poverty.
Sycophancy		excessive flattery	obsequiousness, fawning, toadyism, servility
Sycophant	noun	a person who flatters powerful people to gain favour	flatterer, yes-man	The leader was surrounded by sycophants, not advisers.
Synthesis	noun	combining parts into a whole	blend, mixture, combination	The review offers a synthesis of fifty separate studies.
tele		far	telephone, television, telescope, telepathy
Tenable	adjective	able to be defended or believed	defensible, reasonable, sound	Critics argued the theory was no longer tenable.
Tenacious		Holding on firmly, not giving up.	Persistent, Determined, Dogged, Resolute

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Tenet	noun	a main belief or principle that a group or theory is built on	core belief, principle, key idea	Free trade is a central tenet of the institution's economic philosophy.
therm		heat	thermometer, thermal, thermostat
tract		pull/drag	attract, extract, distract, tractor
Tractable		easily controlled	docile, compliant, manageable, amenable
Trajectory	noun	the path or direction something follows over time	path, course, direction	The country is on a trajectory to miss its emissions targets by 2030.
trans-		across	transport, translate, transfer
tri		three	triangle, tripod, trio, trident
Truncate	verb	to shorten by cutting off	shorten, cut	The session was truncated due to protests.
un-		not	unhappy, unfair, unable
Unanimous 🆕	adjective	fully agreed by everyone	root UN=one + ANIM=mind; united	The board gave unanimous approval to the merger.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
Unctuous		falsely sweet/flattering	smarmy, oily, ingratiating, gushing
under-		too little	underpaid, underestimate
Underscore	verb	to give strong emphasis to something	stress, highlight, emphasise	The findings underscore the urgent need for clean water in the region.
Unprecedented	adjective	never having happened before	unheard-of, novel	The country faced an unprecedented heatwave this summer.
Untenable	adjective	impossible to defend or maintain	indefensible, shaky	His position became untenable after the scandal.
Urbane		suave, polished, refined	sophisticated, suave, cultivated, polished
Venerable		respected due to age/wisdom	revered, esteemed, honoured, respected
Venerate		to deeply respect	revere, honour, esteem, worship
Versatile		Able to do many things well.	Adaptable, All-round, Flexible, Multifaceted vert/vers		turn	convert, reverse, divert, versatile

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example
vice versa	phrase	the other way around; the reverse is also true	the other way round, in reverse	Exports affect the currency, and vice versa.
vid/vis		see	video, vision, evident, visible
Vie	verb	to compete strongly with others for something	compete, fight, contest	Several states are now vying for the same factory investment with rival tax offers.
vis-a-vis	preposition	in relation to; compared with; regarding	compared with, about, towards	The rupee weakened vis-a-vis the dollar over the quarter.
vita/viv		life	vital, vivid, revive, survive
Vituperate		to abuse verbally	berate, revile, rail at, castigate
Volatility	noun	how quickly and sharply prices move up and down	wild swings, ups and downs, instability	Market volatility spiked as traders reacted to conflicting inflation data.
Whereby	adverb	by which; through which (a method or arrangement)	by which, through which	The treaty created a system whereby disputes go to a neutral panel.
Xenophobia	noun	strong fear or dislike of people from other countries	fear of foreigners, prejudice, hatred	Editorials warned that rising xenophobia could harm the nation's image as a welcoming land.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Easy Synonyms	Example

Days merged: 9 (2026-06-25, 2026-06-26, 2026-06-27, 2026-06-28, 2026-06-29, 2026-06-30, 2026-07-01, 2026-07-02, 2026-07-04)
Sources: Curated word bank + mined editorial words.